Joyce McKenzie

School Picks Hoke Student

Joyce McKenzie, a junior at Hoke County High School has been selected to study math at the Governor's School at Winston Salem from June 29 to Aug. 9.

The Governor's School of North Carolina has been established to provide a program of education especially for gifted and talented high school students. This is recognition of the students abilities and excellent training they have received from their parents, teachers and others.

Joyce has been very active at Hoke High, with membership in N.H.S., the basketball team, and F.C.A. She also is active in church and community activities.

Joyce is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H.A. McKenzie, Rt. 1, Shannon. After high school, she plans to attend East Carolina University.

Girls Capture Sectional, Kathy Sets Two Records

The undefeated girls' track team captured the NCHSAA women's eastern sectional track and field championship meet at New Bern Friday, by a wide margin.

Star athlete Kathy McMillan broke the sectional records in two events.

The 17-year-old junior recorded a 20' 3 1/4" leap in the long jump, and also set a record in the 220-yard dash with a time of 25.1.

The Hoke girls collected 36 points in the meet, far ahead of second place Lejeune with 22. Nineteen other teams finished with scores out of about forty who competed.

Shot put - Riddick (Northeastern) 35-8; Hawkins (D.H. Conoly); Blue (Hoke); Chais (Red Springs); Bryant (Richlands).

Long jump - McMillan (Hoke) 20-3 1/4; Brown (Ayden-Grifton); Johnson (J.H. Rose); Farmer (Fike); Hayser (Tarboro).

Webb's Has Championship

Webb's Tire locked up the championship last week in the Raeford Merchant Bowling by taking four games from Raeford Auto. A battle remains for the second and third place spots.

The City of Raeford held down the second spot this week by turning back Hollingsworth four games. Oakwood is third this week as they trimmed Marks' three games to one. WSBH remains in the thick of things by beating Moore's four games. McNeil's picked up four wins from Kermit's Barbecue. Bill Hendrix for Marks' had the high 200 last week with 224. Mackie Carter for Oakwood had the High series with a 600 and a 221 game.
