4-H Corner

RICKS HONORED - Former extension service member Phil Ricks (right) is presented with a plaque of appreciation from Robert Attaway, past president of 4-H council. Ricks has joined the Johnston County extension service.

Phil Ricks, who joined the Hoke County Extension Service staff in August 1973, left May 14 to join the Johnston County Extension Service as livestock agent.

4-H members and leaders honored him with a party following the talent show at the county kitchen. Punch, cupcakes, and nuts were served to approximately 175 people.

Robert Attaway, past president of the 4-H county council, presented Ricks with an engraved plaque and a desk set in appreciation of his work and devotion to the county 4-H program.

The Stonewall 4-H Club met Monday night May 12 with 19 members present at the community building. Ellen Maxwell and Kathy Bishop presented a 4-H demonstration titled "Home is a Haven, But Is It Safe?"

The girls' demonstration will be presented at District Activity Day in Moore County on June 27. They will also present it to any activity group upon request.

Mrs. Johnny Bowles, 4-H leader for the Stonewall group, and Mrs. Brenda Canady, 4-H agent, discussed upcoming activities and events with the members.

Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Sandy served refreshments.

New Address? Notify To Receive Tax Rebate

North Carolina taxpayers who have moved since filing their 1974 Federal Income Tax returns should notify the Post Office of their new address so any refunds or rebates may be forwarded. The Post Office does not automatically forward government checks.

More than 319,000 North Carolinians are scheduled to receive about $37 million in rebates from this week's mailout, IRS said.

The rebate is 10 percent of tax liability up to a maximum of $200, reduced by one percent of adjusted gross income in excess of $20,000, up to $30,000. Taxpayers making more than $30,000 will receive a maximum of $100. Except for married persons filing separate returns, the minimum rebate will be the tax liability or $100, whichever is less.

Taxpayers should wait until the end of June contacting IRS to inquire about individual rebates.
