

Red Springs Senior Gets Air Force Academy Nod

David Humphrey, Jr.

David E. Humphrey, Jr., a senior at Red Springs Senior High, has received an appointment to the class of 1979 at the United States Air Force Academy, Colorado Springs, Colo.

Humphrey was nominated by Congressman Charles G. Rose.

He is president of R.S. Beta Club, a member of Future Teachers of America and the Monogram Club at school. Humphrey is a bus driver and served as a marshal for the class of 1974. He lettered in track and football.

A member of the Shannon Volunteer Fire Department, Humphrey attends Antioch Presbyterian Church where he is president of the Youth Group and a choir member.

Humphrey attended the 1974 session of the Governors School of North Carolina, majoring in English.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Humphrey, Sr., of Rt. 1, Shannon.

or only 32% of the county poverty level.

Figures for the county poverty level are based on the 1970 census. 4,560 persons, which was calculated as 29% of the general population, was the number designated as below the poverty level.

Ben Niblock, director of the Hoke County Department of Social Services, estimated about 25% of the population here is receiving food stamp assistance.

On a statewide basis, the increase in participation in the program has risen from 30% in April 1972, to 57% in April of this year.

Classrooms Recollections Sought

Mrs. Duncan G. McFadyen, a retired teacher has been appointed Bicentennial Chairperson for the PRIDE IN AMERICA for Hoke County Unit. She will collect material for a book about teachers' recollections and experiences while active in the schools of North Carolina.

The project is being sponsored by the National Retired Teachers Association and the North Carolina Retired School Personnel.

Mrs. McFadyen hopes to provide every retired school person and teacher an opportunity to contribute from his/her recollections and experiences during active school days.

Contributions from the area will be collected and edited, then sent to a state editing committee. From these contributions this committee will compile and publish a book for North Carolina to be presented to the Bicentennial Program at the NRTA Convention in May 1976 in Houston, Texas. Copies of the book will be available through book subscriptions. Mrs. McFadyen has subscription blanks now.

Every retired school person is urged to send a contribution to Mrs. Duncan G. McFadyen, 413 E. Edinborough from the Hoke County Unit or to the State Chairperson, Mrs. Clarinda A. Britt, 220 Pinehurst Lane, Newton, N.C. 28658.
