Lunsford - Lewis Vows Spoken

Miss Patricia Anne Lewis and Monte Mack Lunsford both of Raeford were united in marriage Sunday June 8 at the Raeford United Methodist Church with the Rev. Kelly Wilson officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Francis Lewis and Mr. Lunsford is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M.L. Lunsford.

Guy C. Smith of Charlotte gave his niece in marriage. She wore a formal gown of white organza with sculptured Venice lace trim and motifs. The bodice of the gown featured sheer illusion yoke and horseshoe neckline. The long fitted sleeves were appliqued with floral motifs and were designed with ruffled cuffs. The full length chapel train was edged with lace and single motifs. Her illusion veil was caught to a Camelot cap covered with Venice lace. She carried a white Bible and orchid.

Miss Debbie Inman, maid of honor, wore a floor length gown of blue and pink featuring empire waist and full angel wing sleeves. She wore a pink veil and carried a white mum tipped with pink.

The bridesmaids, Miss Debbie Lewis, sister of the bride, Miss Joy Chavis of Fayetteville, and Robin Smith of Charlotte wore gowns similar to that of the maid of honor with blue veils and blue tipped mums.

David Lunsford served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Ted Lunsford, Larry Lunsford, Douglas Lunsford, brothers of the groom and Mackie Lewis brother of the bride.

Miss Adair Lunsford, niece of the groom was the miniature bride dressed in a gown similar to that of the bride. She carried a single mum encircled by miniature carnations. Leslie Lunsford, nephew of the groom served as ring bearer.

The mother of the bride wore a pale green dress and carried white accessories. The groom's mother wore a yellow dress with lace jacket. Both mothers had corsages of white carnations. The bride's grandmother wore a beige two piece outfit and also wore a corsage of white carnations.
