Strickland - Walters Pair Speak Wedding Vows Friday

Miss Mary Eileen Walters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie L. Walters of Route 3, and Timothy Alan Strickland, son of the Reverend and Mrs. Carl Strickland of Rockfish, were married at five o'clock, Friday afternoon, at Community United Methodist Church. The Rev. Mr. Strickland officiated for the double ring ceremony.

An arrangement of white gladioli, mums, and yellow and white daisies, flanked by seven-branched candelabra, formed a setting for the vows. Miniature ivy entwined the candelabra and outlined the kneeling bench.

Wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Helen Lamply, pianist. Mrs. Jimmy McDiarmid sang, "All of My Life," and for the benediction, Barry Ellis, Mrs. McDiarmid and Rochelle Walters sang, "The Lord Bless You and Keep You."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal, empire gown of white bonne satin fashioned with Venice lace at the bodice, neckline, sleeves and around the hemline. Her chapel length illusion veil, edged with lace, was attached to a crown of pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses and gypsophila with ivy streamers and yellow and white ribbons. The bride's dress was made by her mother.

The maid of honor, Miss Geraldine Smith of Raeford, wore a floor-length, empire dress of yellow flocked voile with white velvet ribbon at the waistline. White velvet ribbon formed her headpiece and she carried a single long stemmed yellow rose.

The bridesmaids, wearing similar floor-length dresses of green flocked voile, were Twana and Susan Strickland, sisters of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Jimmy McDiarmid and Rochelle Walters, sisters of the bride. Each one carried a single yellow rose.

Rebecca Walters, the bride's sister, was flower girl. She wore a floor-length dress of green flocked voile.

Danny Gibson of Raeford served as best man. Ushers were Michael and Alan Walters, brothers of the bride, and Roland Fulk, uncle of the bride.

The mother of the bride was attired in a long gown of sea-green nylon with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a floor-length gown of peach polyester with peach accessories. The mothers and grandmothers wore corsages of white carnations.

After a wedding trip to the coast, the couple will make their home at Route 3, Raeford. For travel the bride chose a multicolor floral nylon jersey dress and a corsage of yellow rosebuds from her bouquet.

The bride, a 1974 graduate of Hoke County High School, has completed one year in business at Sandhills Community College and is employed at McCain. The bridegroom was graduated from Hoke County High School and attended Sandhills Community College's architectural technology course for one year. He is employed by Knit-Away.

Mrs. W.B. McDiarmid directed the wedding.

Reception

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained with a reception at their home.

The dining room table was covered with a yellow linen cloth overlaid with white lace and centered with an arrangement of yellow and white daisies and gypsophila. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom. Also served were punch, nuts
