No news from Tabernacle Church this week except some of the young people's meetings which took place the first of the week.

No news from Pittman Grove Church this week except the usual services were held and attendance was very good.

For something very unusual, so many of the members of Galatia choir were away last Sunday, there was no choir. And, the choir director and organist Mason Bell was left with the responsibility of all the preludes, closings responses and everything. Mrs. David McInnis was the only one at choir practice on Wednesday night, who was going to be present on Sunday and she doesn't claim to be a soloist.

Mrs. George Monroe, Mrs. Jane Turner, Mrs. Anna M. Gillis, Mrs. Johnny Gillis were among those from Galatin Church who went to Montreat Friday and came back Galatin
