Miss Holland Is Bride Of Julian S. Johnson III

Miss Margaret Elizabeth Holland and Julian Samuel Johnson III were united in marriage at four o'clock in the afternoon on Saturday, June 28, in Saint James United Methodist Church in Tarboro. The Rev. Caswell E. Shaw Jr. officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Charles Parker Holland of Tarboro and the late Mr. Holland. The groom is the son of Mrs. Julian Samuel Johnson Jr. of Raeford and the late Mr. Johnson.

Wedding music was presented by A. Lloyd Owens of Tarboro, organist, and Miss Audrey Long of Raeford, soloist.

The vows were spoken before the altar which was decorated with two altar vases of white snapdragons, pompon daisies, mums and gypsophila, brass urns filled with greenery and two seven-branched candelabra entwined with springia.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Francis Bartow Houston of Washington, N.C., the bride wore a formal gown of white silk organza over peau de soie. The princess bodice was fashioned with an oval collar of chantilly lace re-embroidered with pearls and forming capelet sleeves. The silhouette skirt flowed from the lifted waist which was marked with cut-out designs of pearled lace and adorned with scattered lace motifs. A wide frame of scalloped lace and designs encircled the skirt which extended into a chapel length train. Her shoulder-length veil was attached to a fingertip mantilla of French silk illusion and chantilly lace. She carried a bouquet of yellow and white bridal roses, daisies and gypsophila accented with miniature English ivy and streamers of white picot ribbon.

Mrs. Gary Lee Armstrong of Alabaster, Alabama, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Edgar Miller Baker and Mrs. Robert Albert Wright of Raeford, sisters of the bridegroom; Mrs. Woody Howard Wilkinson of Smithfield, Mrs. David Lee Collins of Belhaven, Miss Margaret Ann Swanson of Raeford, and Mrs. Joseph Benjamin Meeks of Raleigh.

The bride's attendants wore floor-length gowns of floral organza in shades of green and yellow over Nile green taffeta. They carried nosegays of Marguerite daisies with streamers of yellow and green satin ribbon.

Edgar Miller Baker of Raeford, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Robert Albert Wright of Raeford, Lawrence Webb Kissell of Biscoe, Roney Kenneth Langston of Smithfield, Robert Steven Smith of Wilmington, John Frank Nicholson Jr. of Laurinburg, and John Allen Miller Jr. of Washington, D.C.

The bride is a graduate of Peace College and East Carolina University.

Keith - Inman Vows Spoken At First Baptist

Miss Deborah Sharon Inman became the bride of William Alexander Keith III in a four o'clock ceremony Saturday in the First Baptist Church. The Rev. Jack Mansfield officiated for the double ring vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey F. Inman of Raeford. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Keith, Jr., of Hendersonville.

The altar was decorated with baskets filled with mixed flowers and seven-branched candelabra.

Wedding music was presented by Sharon Currie, organist, and William Daniels, vocalist, who sang The Lord's Prayer.

Maid of honor was Miss Rosemary Inman, sister of the bride. She wore a mint green crepe halter dress with sheer floral jacket and carried yellow pompon daisies.

Bridesmaids, with costumes and flowers like those of the honor attendant, were Mrs. Earl Dawson of Chapel Hill, Miss Lisa Inman, sister of the bride, Mrs. Edwin Knight of Atlanta, Ga., sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Mary Nell Harward of Winston-Salem.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white organza and Venice lace designed with high neckline, bishop sleeves, empire waistline and detachable chapel train. A Camelot lace cap held her lace-edged fingertip veil, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white gladiolus.

Mr. Keith served as best man for his son. Ushers were Allen Inman and Keith Inman, brothers of the bride; Terry Brock and Robert Hefner.

The mother of the bride wore a light blue, floor-length dress, and the bridegroom's mother was attired in a long, yellow dress.

After the ceremony, the bride's parents gave a reception in the church fellowship hall.

Mrs. Ashwell Harward served cake and the Misses Diane Inman and Cissy Moses poured punch. Carolyn Wilburn and Wendy and Gwyn Mansfield assisted.

Miss Sharon Ashburn kept the register.

For travel the bride wore a beige and white sun dress with matching jacket. Following a wedding trip to Pompano Beach, Fla., the couple will be at home in Hendersonville.

The bride, a 1974 graduate of Appalachian State University, will teach school in Hendersonville. The bridegroom is a 1973 graduate of Appalachian State University. He is superintendent for Cooper Construction Co.

Mrs. William Alexander Keith III

Friday evening, the bridegroom's parents were hosts for a post-rehearsal dinner at the Holiday Inn in Southern Pines, honoring the bride couple and wedding party.

Floating Shower Honors Bride-Elect

Mrs. Carroll Wilburn and Mrs. W.K. Morgan entertained with a floating bridal shower Monday evening of last week for Miss Deborah Sharon Inman, who was married Saturday to William Alexander Keith III of Hendersonville.

Upon her arrival at the Morgan home, Miss Inman was presented with a corsage of white carnations.

The refreshment table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of yellow and white summer flowers. Bridal cakes, nuts, mints and punch were served to the 25 guests. Mrs. Dewey Inman, mother of the honoree, poured punch.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Picklesimer of Lexington, Ky., arrived Tuesday to spend the week with their daughter, Mrs. Robert Lentz, and family.
