

UPWARD BOUND - High school juniors and seniors taking part in the federally funded 'Upward Bound' program at Pembroke State University are welcomed last week by James B. Chavis, dean of student affairs. The 55 youths will live on campus and attend special classes in reading, composition, and speaking during the six week program.

Man Here Questioned, Released In Murder Hunt

A young man was released by Cumberland County sheriff's detectives Tuesday afternoon after he was picked up on West Fifth Ave. here in connection with the Sunday killing of a Fayetteville convenience store employee during a robbery holdup.

Major C.C. Kiser, chief of detectives, said that man was released after witnesses failed to identify him in a lineup. The man fitted the description of a suspect being sought, Kiser said earlier at the Hoke county sheriff's office.

Vietnam Veterans Still Qualify For Benefits, VA Reminds

Almost 9.7 million men and women remain eligible for wartime veterans benefits based on military service during the Vietnam era, which was ended May 7, 1975, by Presidential proclamation.

Veterans Administration Regional Office Director H.W. Johnson explained that more than 7.5 million persons, who have been separated from military service since Aug. 4, 1964, and some 2.1 million who were on active duty May 7, 1975, are entitled to full wartime benefits.

West Virginia Pupil Wins State Prize

Mark Garrison, a Ft. Ashby, W.V. high school student, received a Golden Horeshoe Award for being among the highest scorers on a statewide test that checked knowledge of West Virginia history. Mark is an eighth grade student at Ft. Ashby High School. He is the son of Rev. and Mrs. John Garrison.

He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. K.P. Ritter of Rockfish. Mark's brother, Tom Garrison, was awarded third prize in an essay contest sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR).

(Emergency Operations Center) was discussed. Niven told the board he would be attending a school in Boone next week, for instruction on re-writing the county plan.

In other business, the board approved minor changes in the school budget requested by Superintendent G. Raz Autry. Shifts in funds were made in instructional services, (for upkeep of vehicle for audio visual director) utilities, and capital outlay. The changes did not affect the overall budget amounts, Autry said.

Fuel Costs Drop Again

Carolina Power & Light Co. has announced that the fossil fuel adjustment charge on June bills will be slightly lower than it was in May. The June adjustment charge in North Carolina will be just over a half cent per kilowatt-hour (.616 cents compared to .631 in May) or $6.16 per thousand kilowatt-hours used. The average CP&L residential customer uses 905 kilowatt-hours per month. The charge will be slightly lower in South Carolina primarily due to a difference in the way taxes are applied in the two states. According to CP&L, the June charge is lower than May because the price of coal burned has continued to go down. The June charge is calculated on the basis of the cost of fuel burned during April. The fossil fuel adjustment charge reflects the cost of fuel over and above what CP&L is allowed in its base rates for fuel expense.

Unaffected by the Presidential proclamation and the requested Congressional action is GI home loan eligibility. The Veterans Housing Act of 1970 revised all expired, unused GI home loan entitlements and erased expiration dates on veterans' eligibility. Subsequent home loans, where previous loans were satisfied, and an increase from $12,500 to $17,500 in the maximum portion of the GI loan which VA can guarantee was authorized last year. There is no limit on the amount of the loan to which the VA guarantee applies. The Veterans Health Care Expansion Act of 1973 eliminated the requirement for wartime service as a condition for eligibility for VA medical care.

Veterans Corner

Here are this month's questions and answers. If you would like further information on any of these points, be sure to contact your nearest State, local or veterans organization Service Officer.

Q. Are all veterans whose deaths are not service-connected entitled to the VA $150 burial plot allowance?
A. The plot - interment allowance is not payable if burial is in a national cemetery or other federal cemetery, or if the plot or interment expenses have been paid or assumed by the deceased's employer.

Q. I desire to have my official discharge from the armed forces recorded to prevent loss or destruction. Is this service available in North Carolina?
A. It certainly is. The Register of Deeds of any county will record your discharge without cost to you and provide you with a free certified copy upon application.

Q. If I qualify for a scholarship as the child of a veteran, may I attend a technical institute and use the benefit there?
A. Yes. The 1973 General Assembly passed legislation to include technical institutes in the scholarship program.

Q. May I use the benefits of a State scholarship for children of veterans at an institution not located in the State of North Carolina?
A. No. The program is applicable to state universities and community colleges, technical institutes, private junior and senior colleges and universities located in North Carolina.

Q. I lost my National Service Life Insurance policy which I have carried since World War II. May I get a copy from the Veterans Administration?
A. Yes. Request a copy from the VA insurance center where you pay your premiums. If you have a paid-up policy, direct your request to the insurance center in Philadelphia.

Q. My husband died in service in 1946. Am I still eligible for his home loan benefit?
A. Yes. Unused, expired loan benefits have been restored for World War II and Korean Conflict veterans and eligible, unmarried widows of these veterans.

Q. Is it true that World War II veterans may apply for a GI loan without regard to the length of time they have been out of service?
A. Yes, a recent law restored unused expired loan guaranty entitlement to all veterans who were previously eligible. There is no longer a time limit on applying for a GI loan.

Q. My 59-year-old father is a veteran of World War II, and he is receiving a pension because he is unable to work. May he be treated in a VA hospital even though his condition is not related to his military service?
A. Yes, if a VA examination confirms that he needs hospitalization and a bed is available. Because he receives a pension, it will not be necessary for him to sign a statement of inability to pay.

Q. I received an honorable discharge after two years of service in Vietnam. Am I eligible for burial in a Veterans Administration cemetery?
A. Yes. All of the original VA cemeteries as well as most of the cemeteries formerly under other government agencies are now incorporated into a national cemetery system within VA. You would be eligible for burial in any national cemetery having space, except Arlington where the few remaining spaces are reserved for those who die in active duty or retired status and high government officials.

Q. My 20-year-old daughter, whose father was killed three years ago while on active duty, plans to be married. Will she still be eligible for war orphans' educational assistance?
A. Yes. Marriage of children eligible for this benefit is not a bar to entitlement.

Q. As a Vietnam-era veteran, I am eligible for a GI home loan backed by the Veterans Administration. What papers should I take when I go to a lender to apply for a loan?
A. Get a Certificate of Eligibility from the VA regional office in your state because the lender will need assurance of your eligibility before making a commitment on a GI loan. Application for a loan may be started, however, even before you secure the certificate.
