Salak-Lupo Vows

Said In St. Patrick's Church

Miss Brenda Gail Lupo of Fayetteville, daughter of William C. Lupo of Raleigh and Mrs. Douglas Smoak of Charlotte and Thomas Bennett Salak Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bennett Salak Sr. of Hope Mills were united in Marriage on Saturday afternoon, June 28th at 3:00 o'clock in St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Fayetteville. Father Harry Webb officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Rachael Mann organist and Miss Jan Reeves, soloist, of Fayetteville.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of white organza; long sleeves and fitted bodice with a portrait neckline. The skirt flowed into a chapel train. Her chapel veil was trimmed with appliques and she carried a bouquet of daisies and babies breath.

Miss Pamela Sumner of Lumber Bridge was Maid of Honor. She wore a floor length gown of yellow floral-organza and carried a large yellow mum. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Pat Gray, of Raeford, Mrs. Joan Taylor, of Charlotte, Mrs. Cathy Jackson, of Lumber Bridge, sisters of the bride, Misses Virginia and Rosemary Salak of Hope Mills, sisters of the groom, Miss Janice Beu, of Council Bluffs, Iowa, former roommate of the bride, and Miss Gloria Rogers, of Fayetteville. They wore dresses of mint green floral organza and carried a large mint green mum. Lisa Salak, sister of the groom was flower girl. She wore a yellow floor length dress identical to the Honor Attendant.

Brian Norris, of Raeford, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. Thomas B. Salak served as his son's best man and ushers were Bill Lupp, of Raeford, brother of the bride, Paul Payne and Mike Waring of Hope Mills, Johnnie Sumner of Lumber Bridge, Bud Butler, George Herring and Dave De Carlo of Fayetteville.

The bride is a graduate of Parkton High School and Automation Machine Training Center in Kansas City Mo. She is employed as a receiving clerk at Trissi-Avanti in Fayetteville. Her husband is a graduate of St. Bernard's Catholic High School in Fitchburg, Massachusetts and Chowan College, Murfreesboro. He is employed with C.I.T. Financial Services and Corp in Fayetteville.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.E. Lupo of Raeford and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Jackson of Lumber Bridge.

After a wedding trip to the mountains, the newlyweds will reside at 2650 Driftwood Drive, Fayetteville.

Reception
A reception was held in the Church Social Hall following the wedding.

Mrs. William Norris, of Raeford, aunt of the bride, cut and served the cake and Mrs. Sidney Sumner poured punch. They were assisted in serving by Miss Sandy Powers of Parkton.

The refreshment table, which was overlaid with white lace and linen cloths, was centered with an arrangement of large mums, glads and daisies in yellow, mint green and white, flanked on each side by silver candle holders with white candles. On one end was a four tiered wedding cake and the other a silver punch bowl.

On Friday night before the rehearsal, the grooms parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Salak entertained members of the wedding party with a buffet supper at their home near Hope Mills.

REIGN OF BEAUTY - Mary Margaret Sawyer, the new "Miss Aberdeen" is crowned by the outgoing queen, Diana Moon and flanked by Beth Buffkin, first runner-up; Susan Lawrence, Miss North Carolina; and Teraseta Ellerbe, second runner-up.

Mary Margaret Sawyer Crowned 'Miss Aberdeen'

Mary Margaret Sawyer was crowned "Miss Aberdeen" in a beauty pageant held there during Fourth of July festivities.

The 19-year-old brunette from Montrose became the second Hoke County girl to hold a beauty title in

Teacher Attends

Language Seminar

Sarah Baucum of Hoke High was among fifty public school teachers from 18 localities in North Carolina who attended a two week institute at Pembroke State University on Applied Linguistics.

The speakers included Dr. R. Baird Shuman, professor of English at Duke University; Dr. Joseph Milner, professor of English and Education at Wake Forest University; and Dr. Denny Wolfe, director of the Division of Languages for the State Department of Public Instruction.

Subjects covered included "Linguistics: It's Realm, Uses and Potential," "Language Acquisition," "The Multifunctional Nature of Language," "Linguistic Problems of the Special Child," "Methodology and Practicum," and "Grammar, Dialects and Usage."

Service Personnel

Army Sergeant Samuel C. Phillips, 19, whose wife, Sue, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Gibson, Rt. 1, Raeford, graduated from the XVIII Airborne Corps Noncommissioned Officers Academy at Ft. Bragg.

He received instruction in drill and ceremonies, physical training, leadership, map reading, and weaponry.

Sgt. Phillips is assigned to the 50th Signal Battalion.

Private Ernest K. Russ, 18, son of Mrs. Westell S. Russ, Rt. 1, Lumber Bridge, received a Parachutist Badge marking his successful completion of the airborne course at the Army Infantry School at Ft. Benning, Ga.

He completed a physical training program, then tested his ability by jumping from 34-foot and 250-foot towers. The final week he was required to make five actual jumps.

Moore County. Julie Kicklighter of Raeford is the current "Miss Southern Pines" and was the fourth runner-up in the state pageant.

Miss Sawyer, a math major at the University of North Carolina, sang the Streisand melody, "The Way We Were" for her talent competition. She also scored well on the interview.

The crown won last Friday marked her second try at the title. She was first runner-up in the Miss Aberdeen contest two years ago.

An honor student at UNC, where she will be a junior next fall, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sawyer of Montrose. She is a member of the Carolina Choir and is a voice student.

While at Hoke High, Miss Sawyer earned the biology award and DAR award, among other honors.

She won both the local and regional Woman's Club contest for painting with one of her paintings and competed at the state level. Miss Sawyer served as a youth council member of her church for four years.

As the winner of the first of the Jaycee pageants to be sponsored across the state, she became the first contestant in next year's "Miss North Carolina" contest. An audience of nearly 1,000 watched the final judging held at an Aberdeen school auditorium.

Seven girls reached the finals: Beth Buffkin of Pinebluff; Teraseta Ellerbe of Pinehurst, second runner-up; Sharon Day of Southern Pines; Thurey Connor of Aberdeen; Denise Kennedy of Aberdeen and Diana Sisk of Southern Pines.

"Freedom 1st"
Packets Still Available

Historically, this Country's greatness has come from its individuals and their freedom to conduct independent businesses. Tradition has seen your independent druggist and his around-the-clock attention to your family's health needs grow in status right along with that of his Country's. Though that growth is still evident, and despite the leeching away of many of our rights by an ever-expanding government, we plan to celebrate July 4th, 1976 in the same spirit it was celebrated 200 years ago - with rejoicing and affirmation of our highly prized freedoms and liberties; and with a begrudging attitude toward any further encroachment by Uncle Sam of our liberties, freedoms, or opportunities.

Won't you join us in the display of this Spirit? We still have a few "Freedom 1st" packets left, free to you by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to our Clipping Service, c/o this drug store, Box 5051, Raleigh, N.C. 27607.
