

FASHION SHOW - The benefit fashion show staged by Girl Scouts and Joe Sugar's last week to raise funds for the Bicentennial library was a success, as the crowd enjoyed this Charleston dance routine.

Area Incidents

Daylight Burglars Hit

Large losses were reported by residents in three daylight break-ins under investigation by the sheriff's department.

Addie Duck, Rt. 2, Raeford, reported her home was burglarized last Wednesday and clothing, jewelry, a color television, record player, three guns and other items worth $2,200 were taken. Entry was apparently made by breaking a window, according to the report.

Frank Shaker, Aberdeen, complained his residence was broken into during the day Friday and jewelry, a radio-tape unit, scanner, and other items with a $1,198 value taken. Entry was apparently made by breaking the window in a rear door, according to the complaint.

Nellie Rice, Rt. 2, Raeford, reported her house was ransacked in a daylight burglary Friday, and listed as stolen are two color televisions, a rifle, watches, stereo equipment, an eight track tape machine and other items worth $1,312.

In other incidents, deputies G. McGuire and J. Peterkin apprehended three suspects and are seeking a fourth man in connection with a break-in at Pete's 550 Station.

The trio was charged in connection with the theft of six batteries, according to the report.

Robert L. Heeks, 305 Adams Street, reported about $200 in damage was done to tiles at a new home construction site on Ft. 3 sometime Friday night.

Raeford police responded to a call concerning the shooting of Carlton Locklear in his home about 4:00 p.m. Sunday according to Police Chief Leonard Wiggins.

Locklear, 203 Lamont Street, sustained a gunshot wound from a .22 calibre rifle by his wife, Wiggins said.

Locklear was treated at Moore Memorial Hospital where he is reported to be in satisfactory condition.

Wiggins said the case is under investigation.

TRACK STAR - Coach Billy Colston, pictured here with his star athlete Kathy McMillan, will be on hand Saturday at Duke University when Miss McMillan puts on her uniform as a member of the U.S. team for the Pan-African-West German meet.

Kathy Back

Star athlete Kathy McMillan returned from her triumphant showing in Prague, Czechoslovakia to Durham Friday night to prepare for the West German-Pan African meet this Friday and Saturday.

Miss McMillan was greeted at the airport by her family and her coach Billy Colston, along with school superintendent G. Raz Autry and athletic director John Pecora, and then was whisked off to a press conference with the rest of the United States women's team.

Miss McMillan will compete Saturday in the triangular meet to take place at Duke University's Wallace Wade Stadium. Her mark of 21 feet and seven inches in the long jump captured first place for the United States last week in the U.S. - Poland - Czechoslovakia match.

The seventeen-year-old star is a strong contender for a spot on the United States team to go to the Pan-American games in Mexico City this October.
