BUYING CANTALOUPE:

It's cantaloupe buying time. So when you select a cantaloupe, don't pick a pig in a poke. Pick a winner. One way to do this is to use the word "hand" as a guide. The "H" in the word hand could stand for heavy. Lift the melon. Juicy, luscious cantaloupes should be heavy for their size.

"A" stands for aroma. Does it smell like a fresh cantaloupe? Appearance and aroma are important choosing points.

"N" equals netting. Look at the outside netting before you buy a cantaloupe. Is it raised? Is it easy to see?

And the "D". Well, that stands for depression. The stem end should have a smooth depressed scar or smooth sunken indentation where the melon was attached to the vine. Any attached stem fragments indicate that the melon was picked before maturity.

So before a cantaloupe goes into your shopping basket, make sure it meets the HAND test. Heavy -- aroma -- netting -- and depression

SWEET-SMELLING FREEZER

I hope it won't happen, but it might. A bad electric storm or a mechanical problem might cause your freezer to go off.

The result could be food spoilage and a bad odor. But there are some things you can do that might help remove odors from the freezer.

The first step is to wash the freezer with a solution of baking soda and warm water. If that doesn't remove the odor, use a solution of bleach and water to wipe down the walls. Scrub around the gasket with a brush. And use a scrub brush to clean well in around seams and screws. Then, rinse with clear water and dry.

It may help to lay non-burning charcoal on a saucer or piece of aluminum foil and put it in the freezer. But there may be no way to remove the odor -- if it gets into insulation through cracks or screw holes.

However, you might check with a local service center for refrigerators and freezers. Some service centers have a special machine and treatment that can help deodorize freezers and refrigerators.

Library News

Now Part Of Region

At last the Hoke County Public Library is a part of the Sandhill Library Region. We are so pleased to be a part of the region, although it will be a while before everything is the way we hope it to be.

Mr. Bill Bridgman is our new director. Mrs. Jean Llewellyn is assistant director. Mrs. J.W. (Pam) Williams is an adult services librarian, and Miss Linda Brown is the children's librarian. Pam is also a resident of the Ashmont Community of Hoke County, so her headquarters will be in our library.

Mrs. Cameron attended a book ordering meeting this past Wednesday in the Regional Office in Rockingham. Another order of books is being expected before long. We hope you will be patient as before too long we'll have lots of new books. Right now is the end of our fiscal year, so reports are being prepared.

We had a grand time Tuesday morning in our Story Hour Mrs. Scull's Nursery comes at 9:30, and our group at 10:00.

We did have a problem with our brand new 16MM projector. Mrs. Cameron with the assistance of Mrs. Doby finally got it threaded for the next story hour. While the children waited to see the film "The Country Fair", Mrs. Maxwell led them in a number of songs and Finger Plays.

Hopefully Mrs. Cameron has learned how to thread our new projector, and this won't happen again.

DON'T FORGET-

Curious George story hour at 10:00 A.M. Be sure to come to find out what happens to "Curious George and His Job".

The film will be Ferdinand the Bull. Winkie the Bear will have a new story.

Going Readin' Grades 2 thru 6 Come Friday, July 18, in the afternoon at 2:00 P.M. to see the movie "Highlights of Sports."

Barber-Moore Vows Spoken Saturday P.M.

Mrs. Jimmie Ray Barber

Miss Virginia Loretta Moore, daughter of Mrs. Marian Moore of Red Springs and the late John L. Moore, and Lt. Jimmie Ray Barber of Ft. Bragg, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Carter of North Little Rock, Ark., spoke their wedding vows Saturday at 4:00 p.m., at Johnson Chapel Church. The Rev. W.J. Terry officiated.

Wedding music was furnished by Miss Pam Dockery, pianist, and Leo McRae and Russell McAllister, vocalists.

Given in marriage by her brother, Clyde Moore, the bride wore a gown of peau de soie and re-embroidered Alencon lace, fashioned with split Mandarin collar, bishop sleeves with ruffled cuffs, and a cathedral-length train. Her veil was a lace edged mantilla, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations, white roses and miniature ivy.

Mrs. Mary Ann Timmons, matron of honor, and Miss Dorothy Stubbs, maid of honor, were dressed alike in blue polyester knit gowns made with v-neckline, capelet collar etched in deeper blue, short sleeves and full skirt. Pearl-centered blue roses with layered illusion veiling formed their headpieces, and they carried arm bouquets of pink and blue mums with matching streamers.

Bridesmaids, wearing pink dresses similar to those worn by the honor attendants, were Miss Brenda Moore, Miss Linda Carthins, Miss Mary Helen Mack, Miss Linda Carter and Miss Bonnie Lilly.

Children in the wedding were Beverly A. Moore and Tony Fuller.

1st Lt. Walter Kennedy was best man. Ushers were 1st Lt. Willie Moorehead, 1st Lt. Robert Childress, 1st Lt. Melvin Linsay, Eddie Hunter and Mike Cooper.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Society Hall, Red Springs.

After a wedding trip to Arkansas the couple will live in Fayetteville.

The bride is a graduate of Upchurch High School and North Carolina Central University and is employed by the Hoke County Board of Education. The bridegroom is a 1972 graduate of Henderson State University, Arkadelphia, Ark., where he was a member of Omega Psi Phi fraternity. He is stationed with the U.S. Army at Ft. Bragg.
