McCollum - Sanders Vows Spoken At Silver Grove Baptist Church

Helen Jean Sanders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Sanders of Raeford became the bride of Joe Lawrence McCollum Sunday, July 27, in a double ring ceremony, at five o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. W.K. Mitchell performed the ceremony at the Silver Grove Missionary Baptist Church. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McCollum of Raeford.

Wedding music was provided by Russell McAllister, organist and Mrs. Gloria McLaughlin, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ivory nylon organza gown fashioned with empire waist, bishop sleeves, and chapel length train. Peau d'ange lace bordered the hem and was used in a panel down the front of the gown. She wore a floor length mantilla veil attached to a Juliet cap and carried a colonial bouquet of mixed yellow, green and white flowers.

Miss Elizabeth Sanders, maid of honor, wore a ruffled green flowered gown with V neck and cape collar. She carried a green mum.

Bridesmaids were Phyllis McCollum, Carolyn Breden, Marie Dobbins, and Sallie Douglas. They wore gowns similar to that of the maid of honor. Bridgesdale Hollingsworth served as best man. Ushers were Herson McCollum, James Sanders, James Breden, and Willie Dobbins.

Ida Bell Dobson was flower girl and Delton Terrell Sanders was ring bearer. The bride's mother wore a pink flowered dress and the groom's mother wore a flowered A-line gown.

Reception
After the ceremony the couple was honored with a reception at Evans Recreation Center. Mrs. Alberta McPhatter received guests.
