Miss Hart - Mr. Robinson Married Sunday Afternoon

Miss Jane Kathryn Hart became the bride of Edward Bruce Robinson in a four o'clock ceremony Sunday afternoon at the Raeford United Methodist Church. The Rev. Kelly J. Wilson heard the double ring vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jenkins Hart and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Vernon Hubbard.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Billie Warren of Salemburg, aunt of the bride, and Alton Lee Warren, the bride's cousin.

On either side of the steps to the altar were large matching bouquets, similar to those carried by the bridesmaids, centered with pale pink tapers. Two tall white columns held arrangements of mixed summer flowers, and matching spiral candelabra with pale pink tapers were used on the altar. Brass urns were filled with eucalyptus and Southern smilax.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a colonial-style gown of white silk organza and Venice lace fashioned with fitted bodice outlined with lace at the neckline and organza ruffles forming a bertha collar. Lace, with pink satin ribbon insertion and bows accented the waistline, and the softly full skirt, extending into a chapel train, was edged with a deep ruffle applied with lace and pink ribbon insertion. She wore a matching organza and lace picture hat with silk illusion veiling in back, and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of white roses and stephanotis centered with pink sweetheart roses.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Benjamin Hughes of Oxford, sister of the bride. She wore a pink silk chiffon gown designed with soft V-neckline, capelet collar, fitted bodice and A-line skirt, and carried a colonial nosegay of pink miniature carnations, sweetheart roses and gypsophila with deep red velvet ribbons.

Bridesmaids were Miss Jan Hart of Oxford, niece of the bride; Mrs. Carroll Hart of Raeford, sister-in-law of the bride; Miss Ann Pittard Hart of Oxford, the bride's cousin; and Miss Debbie Anderson of Raeford. Junior attendants were Miss Robin Hart and Miss Lydia Hughes of Oxford, nieces of the bride. Their dresses were like the honor attendant's and they carried similar flowers with pink velvet ribbons.

The flower girl was Leanne Sease, and Chip Hart of Oxford, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Vernon Hubbard was best man. Ushers were E.J. Hart III of Oxford, and Carroll Hart and Steve Hart of Raeford, brothers of the bride; Paul Walters III of Winston-Salem, the bride's cousin; and Graham Niven of Raeford, cousin of the bridegroom.

The mother of the bride wore a floor-length blue silk chiffon dress with embroidered jacket, and carried a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a long dress of peach crepe knit with matching lace and had a corsage of white and peach roses.

After a wedding trip to Williamsburg, Va., the couple will be at home at 415 W. Fifth Ave., Raeford.

The bride is a graduate of J.F. Webb High School in Oxford, attended High Point College and Pembroke State University, and is employed at Knit-A-Way Inc. The bridegroom attended Wingate College, Methodist College and Pembroke State University.

Reception

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents gave a reception in the church fellowship hall.

Mrs. Wilna Lovette and Mrs. Paul Walters served cake, and Mrs. E.J. Hart III and Mrs. J.A. Niven poured punch. Assisting were Kim Smith,

Rehearsal Dinner

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Vernon Hubbard, and Mr. Hubbard entertained with a dinner party Saturday night in the Sandhills Room of the Southern Pines Holiday Inn, honoring the wedding party and out of town guests.
