

In District Court

Two Cleared Of Rape Charge-No Probable Cause

Two men were freed of rape charges after the state did not present any evidence and no probable cause was found. The two, Frank Anthony King, Murchison Road, Fayetteville, and Jerry Randolph Watson, 7413 Homestead Drive, Fayetteville, did plead guilty to possession of marijuana and were sentenced by District Court Judge Joseph Dupree Friday.

Watson was sentenced to six months, suspended for three years, on condition that he violate no narcotics laws in North Carolina for three years and pay $200 and costs. King was placed on probation for a period of two years and ordered to pay $100 and costs.

Eugene Campbell, Edinborough Avenue, Raeford, pleaded guilty to public drunkenness and not guilty to resisting arrest, and was found guilty on both charges and sentenced to six months.

Campbell was told by Judge Dupree that he had ten days to appeal the decision and that he would be technically out on escape for an indefinite period and would probably not ever have to serve the sentence unless he was brought in for another offense.

Dupree told the courtroom when he did this before it had kept Campbell out of court for about a year. A request was made by Dupree that Campbell be given a breathalyzer if he was picked up by officials.

Campbell had taken out a counter-warrant against J.D. Thigpen for assault with a deadly weapon, but stated to the court that he did not wish to proceed with the action. Thigpen, a North Carolina State Highway Patrolman from Raeford, was found not guilty of the charge.

Ernest Perry, McCain, inmate charged with escape, was bound over on a $1,000 bond as a preliminary hearing was waived for action by the grand jury in superior court.

Carolyn Brundley Perry, Zebulon, was bound over to the superior court for action by the grand jury on charges of harboring or aiding an escaped prisoner.

James Earl Hunt, Virginia Beach, Virginia, was found guilty of DUI (third offense) as the court took a nol pros on a charge of transporting alcoholic beverage with the seal broken. He was sentenced to six months. The judgment was appealed and bond was set at $750. Hunt's blood alcohol content was .42, according to records.

James Bell Patterson, Rt. 1,

Rockingham, pleaded guilty to DUI and was sentenced to 90 days, suspended for 12 months, and was ordered not to drive for 12 months except under limited driving privileges. He was fined $150 and costs. His blood alcohol level was .22, according to records.

John Wesley Brigman, Jr., Rt. 4, Red Springs, entered a plea of guilty to DUI and was sentenced to 90 days. His blood alcohol level was .16, according to records. Brigman entered a plea of guilty to a second count of DUI as the state dropped charges for driving without a license. He was sentenced for 90 days to begin after the first sentence is completed. His blood alcohol content was .18 on the second court, according to records.

Kenneth Revels, Rt. 1, Raeford, pleads guilty to DUI and speeding 68 in a 55 mph zone and was sentenced to 90 days, suspended for 12 months, on conditions that he not drive for 12 months except for limited privileges, and pay $150 and costs. His blood alcohol content was .16, according to records.

James Elleby, Rt. 1, Shannon, entered a plea of guilty to speeding 55 in a 35 mph zone and improper equipment, and was sentenced for 30 days, suspended on conditions that he pay $20 and costs.

Earl Henderson, Rt. 1, Aberdeen, pleaded guilty to trespassing and judgment was continued for five years if costs were paid.

James William Goodman, Rockingham, pleaded guilty to DUI (third offense) and was sentenced to 18 months suspended for three and a half years, placed on probation for three and a half years on condition that he not drive until properly licensed to do so, and ordered to follow the guidance of the probation officer in regards to alcoholic rehabilitation. He was fined $500 and costs. His blood alcohol level was .27, according to records.

Leroy Douglas, Red Springs, pleaded guilty to non-support and was sentenced to 60 days, suspended for five years on condition that he pay $35 each week for support and costs.

James Lisenby, Rt. 2, Raeford, was found not guilty on charges of injury to personal property.

Raymond McNair, Rt. 2, Raeford, pleaded guilty to assault with a deadly weapon and was granted prayer for judgment for three years if costs were paid.

Paul Howard Lowe, P.O. Box 104, Aberdeen, pleaded guilty to reckless driving as the state dropped charges of DUI and was sentenced to 60 days suspended on condition that he pay $100 and costs.

Fred Revels, Raeford, was found not guilty of trespassing as frivolous and malicious prosecution was found on the part of the prosecuting witness, and the court ordered the witness to pay the costs of the action.

Stephen Gerard Currie, Ft. Bragg, pleaded guilty to speeding 65 in a 55 mph zone and was fined costs.

James Earl Hunt, Rt. 4, Fayetteville, was sentenced to six months after he pleaded guilty to DUI, sentence to begin after the original sentence has expired concerning the same charge. Hunt gave a notice of appeal and bond was set at $750. His blood alcohol content was .24, according to records.

Vintress Locklear, Red Springs, pleaded guilty to worthless check and was sentenced to 30 days, suspended on condition that he pay $25 restitution to Brady Locklear and costs.

Roy Lee Monroe, Rt. 1, Monroe, pleaded guilty to DUI and was sentenced to 90 days, suspended for 12 months on condition that he not drive for 12 months except under limited privileges and pay $150 and costs. Blood alcohol content was .15, according to records.

Kenneth Leo Dockery, Rt. 1, Raeford, entered a plea of guilty to not having liability insurance and fictitious registration plate and was sentenced to 60 days suspended for three years, on condition that he violate no motor vehicle laws for three years and pay $25 and costs.

Harold Kenneth Ramsey, Ft. Bragg, pleaded guilty to improper registration and driving while license was revoked as the state dropped charges of DUI (third offense), and he was sentenced to 18 months suspended for three years, on the condition that he surrender his license and not drive until he is properly licensed to do so. He was fined $250 and costs.

Wallace Armstead Chambers, Rt. 1, West End, pleaded guilty to reckless driving as the state dropped charges of speeding and he was fined $25 and costs.

John C. Stubbs, Aberdeen, was found guilty of non-support and was sentenced to 90 days since he did not comply with a previous judgment.

Freddie Revels, Rt. 2, Raeford, was found guilty of injury to personal property and was sentenced to six months. Bond was set at $500 as Revels gave a notice of appeal.

William J. McLean, Raeford Hotel, Raeford, pleaded guilty to public drunkenness and was sentenced to three days in jail, retroactive to date of arrest.

James Page, McCain inmate, pleaded guilty to escape and was sentenced to 90 days to begin at the expiration of the sentence being served.

UNWANTED - James Peterkin of Robbins Heights is waiting for the city to pick up this tree which has been sitting for five weeks.

Tree Stumps City

"I guess I'll have to leave it there until it rots", James Peterkin complained as he eyed eight feet of a tree still sitting in front of his Robbins Heights home, waiting to be picked up by the city.

"I've been trying for five weeks to get the city to come and get it. I called three times, I been down there, it's still there", Peterkin said.

The tree, felled in a heavy storm in June, was cut with an ax and much of it was hauled away, Peterkin said. "Three guys came out but they left. They said it was too heavy", Peterkin said.

"Well, in the meantime, the kids like to play on it", Peterkin shrugged.

Jaycees Install New Officers

The Raeford Jaycees installed new officers for the coming year at a recent meeting.

Larry Phillips was installed as the new president, Woody Wilson is the new vice-president, Wayne Mills took over duties as the new secretary-treasurer, and Wes Williams is the new chaplain. Bobby Strother was also appointed the new state director for the Raeford chapter.

"We are looking forward to this year with some new projects in mind and hope that we will be even more successful than last year which included our cerebral-palsy walk-a-thon," said Phillips.
