CHAMPIONS—Lumberton Knitwear, defending champions in the District Five Softball Tournament, did it again Wednesday night to take this year's championship.

Knitwear Takes Title, Bo's Second

By Pat Scott

Lumberton Knitwear won three straight games Wednesday night to capture the District Five Tournament Championship.

Knitwear started the night off by defeating Virgil's 16-6 with homers by Haggins and Willoughby. Haggins was five for five for Lumberton while Chandler of Virgil's went three for three.

Lumberton kept their hitting streak against undefeated Bo's Shopworth with a 11-0 win. Bo's had only four hits to Knitwear's 14, as Haggins went three for three.

In the final game, Knitwear was still going strong with a two run homer by Haggins. Bo's got one run out of four hits while the overpowering Knitwear team took home the trophy with a 5-1 victory.

Knitwear also took nine out of 14 all-star positions. That is not a bad percentage.

In the first round Tuesday night, Western Auto lost a heartbreak 12-10 to Lumberton Knitwear in a well matched game. Haggins was three for three at bat and Willoughby's homer aided Knitwear to the quarter-finals. Barch of Western Auto was three for four in the game.

McNeill's was ready for Carolina Turf as they beat them 11-6. Faulk was four for four as he aided McNeill's to a fine defensive victory. Mariel Jacobs was three for four for Carolina Turf but the team went scoreless too many innings.

Bo's Shopworth defeated Virgil's

5-4 giving them their first loss in tournament competition for the two weeks. Virgil's put forth a great effort as Chandler was three for three, which included a two-run homer, and was also aided by Pete Maynor's solo homer. Bo's came up with the winning run after an error and a walk in the sixth, and then held Virgil's scoreless in the top of the seventh.

Willoughby and Kissan both hit solo homers to aid Knitwear in their defeat of McNeill's 8-0. The win advanced them to the championship games.

The Knitwear team was defeated only once in the tournament and that was by Virgil's 9-8 in the first round.

Two Virgil's Players Make All-Star

Charles Chandler and Pete Maynor, outstanding players for Virgil's, represented the Raeford teams on the all-star team for the District Five Tournament which was chosen by a special committee composed mainly of Kiwanis members.

The team was dominated by members of the tournament champions Lumberton Knitwear as they took nine out of the 14 slots open.

The team shaped up like this: Harley Halliburton, pitcher, Lumberton Knitwear; Walter Leach, catcher, McNeill's; Rudy Williams, first base, Lumberton Knitwear; Robert Barch, second base, Lumberton Knitwear; Donald Martin, third base, Bo's; Larry Faulk, shortstop, McNeill's; Tom Arnette,

Hoke High Joins 4-A

Hoke County High School is now placed in a new athletic conference this year which will put them in a new classification for athletic activities.

Joining Hoke County in the new Southeastern 4-A Conference will be Sanford, Richmond County, Scotland, Pinecrest, Lumberton, and Wadesboro Bowman.

"It's the same as the old Southeastern 3-A conference with the exception of Clinton and Dunn who are going to remain the same and compete in the same conference with Burgaw," said Hoke athletic director John Pecora.

Pecora said that he looked for Richmond County and Sanford to be the big powers not only of the conference, but of the state, and that he hoped Hoke would be a contender.

Head football coach Bill Cameron said that he is looking forward to the re-alignment.

"I'm looking forward to the new conference. If I can get our players to feel like I feel about the new conference, we'll have a good year," said Cameron.

Three Study Yearbook

Martha Wood, Dwan Upchurch and Deborah McNeill of Raeford have been awarded certificates on completion of a week long course in yearbook procedures conducted at Furman University, Greenville, South Carolina, and sponsored by the Yearbook Workshop of Greenville.

During the week they concentrated on yearbook layout and design, photography, typography, and copy writing. The workshop was the tenth annual session, and the fifth to be held at Furman University.

Tourney Action Is Underway

By Pat Scott

The first round of the Raeford Tennis Tournament got underway Monday afternoon with four men's singles matches and one women's singles match.

John Miller, Glenn Miller, Henry Hostetler, and Larry Beasley posted first round wins in the men's singles as Roy Wood lost to Johnny Miller

6-1, 6-1; Glenn Miller defeated Duncan Buoyer 6-1, 6-1; Henry Hostetler downed Robert Calhoun 6-1, 6-2; and Danny Lee fell to Larry Beasley 6-4, 6-2.

In the women's action, Kathy Leach beat Diana Nash 6-4, 6-4.

The championship round for the tournament is scheduled for Thursday night.
