

TAKING A LOAD- County workers are shown moving the supplies for county extension service to the new county office building last Friday. Other offices are scheduled to make the move this week.

District Court

Large Fines, Suspended Sentences Fill Docket

Suspended sentences and heavy fines were handed down by District Court Judge Joseph Dupree Friday. Large fines were evident in an assault case and a DUI case, but no one received active sentences in these cases.

Lewis Locklear, Rt. 3, Raeford, pleaded guilty to assault with a deadly weapon and was sentenced to not less than one day nor more than two years, suspended on condition that he pay $750 restitution and costs.

James Eric Woods, Rt. 2 Raeford, was found guilty of DUI, (third offense) and driving while his license was suspended and was sentenced to two years, suspended for three and a half years on condition that he be placed on probation for three and one half years and that he pay $700 and costs.

Gerald Pittman, Rt. 2, Raeford, was found guilty of permitting a motor vehicle under his control to be driven by an unlicensed driver and permitting a motor vehicle under his control to be driven by an individual under the influence of intoxicating liquor and was sentenced to six months, suspended for two years on condition that he pay $200 and costs.

Lindsay A. Antis, Fayetteville, was found not guilty of driving without a license, but pleaded guilty to speeding 68 in a 55 mph zone and prayer for judgment was continued on condition that costs were paid.

William Duer Frye, Hamlet, pleaded guilty to speeding 65 in a 55 mph zone, and was fined $5 and costs.

Alton Carthens, Rt. 1, Red

Springs, pleaded guilty to DUI as the state dropped charges of reckless driving and was sentenced to 90 days, suspended for 12 months on condition that he pay $150 and costs and not drive for 12 months except for limited driving privileges. Blood alcohol content was .17, according to records.

Curtis Cummings, Rt. 3, Raeford, was found not guilty of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill as the court found no probable cause.

James Henegan, James Hill, Raeford, pleaded guilty to public drunkenness and was sentenced to five days in Hoke County jail, retroactive to Sept. 26.

Fried McLean, Raeford, was found not guilty of DUI.

Fannie B. McRae, Raeford, was found not guilty of a worthless check.

Albert Gray Ayers, Rt. 1, Aberdeen, pleaded guilty to no financial responsibility and following too closely and was sentenced to 60 days, suspended on condition that he pay $25 restitution, $25 fine and costs.

The state took a voluntary dismissal on the following cases: Curley Chavis, Hotel Raeford, receiving stolen goods; William H. Gill, Prospect Ave., Raeford, worthless check; Fredrick Lee Stephens, Fifth Ave., Raeford, driving without a license; Ronald Earl Smith, Matthews, expired operators license; Rebecca Ann McNeill, Rt. 3, Raeford, driving without a license.

Emerson Matthews Cottingham, Gibson, pleaded guilty to speeding 68 in a 55 mph zone and prayer for judgment was continued for two years on condition that cost were paid.
