Miss Loving, Mr. Hales Wed In Southern Pines

Miss Connie Loretta Loving of Southern Pines became the bride of George Daniel Hales of Raeford, Saturday afternoon, October 18, at 3 o'clock, in the First Baptist Church of Southern Pines. The Rev. John Stone, pastor, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Flint Loving Jr. of Southern Pines. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ludwell Hales of Raeford.

The ceremony was performed before an altar flanked by baskets of ivory and coral gladioli, mums and babies' breath. A fifteen branch candelabrum held lighted cathedral tapers.

The program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Robert Stone of Southern Pines, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white gown of angelskin peau de soie, fashioned with high neckline, empire waist and camelot sleeves with points extending over the hand. The bodice was overlaid with Chantilly lace. The skirt was demi-bell shaped with a chapel train bordered in Chantilly lace. Her elbow-length veil of bridal illusion was attached to a cap of lace leaves, pearl centered organza and satin flowers. She carried a white bible topped with a white orchid and satin streamers tied in love knots.

Miss Susan Loving of Southern Pines, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was attired in a floor-length gown of coral, aqua and green jersey. The empire waistline was accented with coral velvet ribbon. Her headpiece was a coral velvet bow. She carried one large ivory mum.

The bridesmaid was Mrs. Kathy Dean of Southern Pines. The junior bridesmaid was Miss Julie Loving of Southern Pines, sister of the bride. They wore gowns identical to that of the maid of honor, and carried single large ivory mums.

Attending the bridegroom as best man was his father. Ushers were Lawrence Hales of Wagram, Donald Hales of Raeford, and Larry Hales of Charlotte, brothers of the bridegroom; and Charles Crowder of Raeford.

Mrs. Larry Hales of Charlotte presided at the register.

After a wedding trip to the mountains, the couple will make their home in Raeford.

Cake Cutting

Following the wedding rehearsal, a cake cutting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Flint Loving Jr. in Southern Pines.

The refreshment table was laid with a white linen cloth and centered with a floral arrangement of yellow and white. On one end of the table was the three-tiered wedding cake and the other end held the crystal punch bowl.

After the bride and groom cut the traditional first slice of cake, Mrs. Lawrence Hales of Wagram completed the serving. Mrs. Donald Hales of Raeford, presided at the punch bowl. Nuts, mints and party sandwiches were also served.

Guests were the bridal party, immediate families and close friends of the bridal couple.

Baptismal Service

Joseph Jeffrey Schoch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jeffrey Schoch of Vanceboro, was baptized Sunday morning in a private ceremony before the Homecoming service at Lumber Bridge Presbyterian Church, by the Rev. R.Y. Russell of Springs, Texas, former pastor, and the Rev. Russell Fleming.

The baby is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Forbis of Lumber Bridge, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schoch of Melbourne, Fla. He wore his father's baptismal suit.

A baptismal party was held Sunday night at the Ambassador Motel in Fayetteville.
