Brown - Brown Vows Spoken

Miss Cynthia La Rue Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Brown of Lumber Bridge and Sgt. Billy D. Brown of Arlington, Virginia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey A. Brown of Augusta, Arkansas, were united in marriage on Saturday evening, October 25 at seven o'clock in a candle light ceremony at the Parkton Baptist Church, Parkton.

The Rev. David A. Roberts officiated at the double ring ceremony. A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. David Parnell, organist, of Parkton. Members of the church choir sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer." The vows were spoken before the altar which was decorated with one double branched and two seven branched candelabras centered with arrangements of large white mums. An arrangement of yellow and gold, daisies and mums centered the altar. Lighted candles were placed in the windows throughout the sanctuary.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of Angleskin peau de soie highlighted by lace appliques with sequin centers. The gown was styled with empire waist, Victorian neckline and full length chapel train. The Tiara cap and full length veil was trimmed in matching lace with scattered lace and sequin appliques. She carried a bouquet of carnations and daisies centered with a white orchid with lace streamers.

Miss Jacque Brown of Red Springs served as her sister's maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of burnt orange polyester and nylon knit and a nylon veil covered with small velvet ribbon bows. She carried a cascade of gold and yellow mums and daisies. Bridesmaids were Miss Pamela Sumner of Lumber Bridge, Mrs. Vickie Hagens of Parkton, Miss Arlene Locklear of Baltimore, Maryland and Mrs. Marie Kem of Lighthouse Point, Florida.

Miss Teresa Brown of St. Pauls, niece of the bride was junior bridesmaid. She wore a floor length gown of white polyester knit with orange ribbons and bows. Miss Andrea Lamont of Lumber Bridge, niece of the bride, was flower girl and wore a gown identical to the attendants. Michael Hyatt of Red Springs was ring bearer.

Sgt. Bruce Dunham of Ft. Myer, Virginia, served as best man, and ushers were Don Brown of St. Pauls, brother of the bride, Andy Lamont of Lumber Bridge, brother-in-law of the bride, Sgt. Richard Hatfield of Ft. Myer, Virginia and Gene Robinson of Red Springs. Junior groomsmen were Johnny Karshner of St. Pauls.

The bride is a graduate of Parkton High School and Pembroke State University. Sgt. Brown graduated from Augusta High School and attended the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, Arkansas. He is presently stationed at Ft. Myer, Virginia, and a sentinel at The Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. After the first of the year they will make their home in Arkansas.

Following the wedding, parents of the bride entertained at a reception at the Main NCO Club, Ft. Bragg.
