Dore - Marks Wedding Held Here Sunday

Miss Mary Elaine Marks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thad Marks, and Edward A. Dore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dore of Branford, Conn., were united in marriage Sunday, November 23, at 3:00 p.m. in the First Baptist Church. Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Jack Mansfield.

Wedding music was presented by Will Gillis of Fayetteville, organist, and Don Brock of Raeford who sang, "The Twelfth of Never" and "The Wedding Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of sata peau made with high neckline on the fitted bodice and lantern sleeves. Chantilly lace ruffles, edged with yonise lace, adorned the bodice in a soft effect and the same lace combination was used around the natural waistline and on the sleeves. The full skirt, which extended into a chapel train, was bordered at the hemline with a flounce edged with lace. Her fingertip mantilla was bordered with chantilly lace and overlaid with an illusion blusher. She carried a nosegay of pink rosebuds, baby's breath and white mums.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Harold Holcomb of Raeford. She wore a lilac gown and matching picture hat and carried a purple-centered white mum with streamers.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Larry Dore of Branford, Conn., Lynn Flinchum of Aberdeen, and Miss Shirley Poe, Mrs. Bobby Posey and Mrs. Buddy Dunn, all of Raeford. They wore purple gowns with matching picture hats and carried white mums/centered with purple.

Melissa Hinnant of Goldsboro was flower girl. She wore a gown made like that of the honor attendant and carried a basket of mixed flowers.

Mr. Dore was his son's best man. Ushers were Larry Dore and Cliff Dore of Branford, Conn., Larry Bobbitt of Aberdeen, and Harold Holcomb, Wilbur Marks and Bobby Posey, all of Raeford.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall.

Mrs. W. A. Long of Raeford served the five-tiered wedding cake and Mrs. David Bobbitt of Aberdeen poured punch.

For travel the bride wore a blue pantsuit and a corsage of pink roses. Upon their return from a wedding trip to Connecticut, the newlyweds will be at home on Crawford St.

The bride is a graduate of Hoke County High School. The bridegroom is employed by Knit-Away Inc.

***
The parents of the bridegroom entertained the bridal party with a buffet supper Saturday evening at the home of the bridegroom.

***
Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. David Bobbitt and family.
