Glover-Kirkley Vows Spoken

Miss Angela Joy Kirkley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Kirkley of Route 4, became the bride of William Edison Glover Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Glover of Raeford, on Sunday, December 7, at 3:00 p.m., at the First Baptist Church. The Rev. Jack Mansfield performed the double ring ceremony.

Wedding music was presented by Janie Whitley of Salisbury, organist, and Lester Southern, soloist.

Sheila Tew of Route 4, was matron of honor. She wore a long red satin pea dress made with stand-up collar, empire waistline and puff sleeves, and she carried a nosegay of red and white carnations. Bridesmaids were Gay Kirkley, sister of the bride, and Sherry Shepley of Route 2. Their gresses were made like the honor attendant's and they carried single white mums.

Kim Lovette, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a candlelight bridal satin gown with appliques of lace re-embroidered with seed pearls on the empire waistline and skirt which extended into a chapel train. A Camelot cap held her cathedral-length veil and she carried a nosegay of red and white carnations with satin streamers tied in love knots.

The bridegroom's father served as best man. Ushers were Ron Kirkley, brother of the bride, Cary Clark, Eddie Caddell and Bobbie Smith, all of Raeford.

Following the wedding rehearsal Saturday night, the bride's parents entertained with a cake cutting in the church fellowship hall.

The bride, a 1974 graduate of Hoke County High School, attended UNC-Charlotte, and is a graduate of Sir Walter Beauty Academy. She is employed at Gino's Beauty Salon, Ft. Bragg. The bridegroom is a graduate of Hoke County High School and Sandhills Community College. He is employed at the A&P here.
