

District Court

Man Is Charged After Testifying For Friend

One man was found not guilty of speeding by District Court Judge Joseph Dupree Friday, but due to testimony given under oath, another man was charged with the offense.

Benjamin Green, Rt. 1, Raeford, pleaded not guilty to charges of speeding 70 in a 55 MPH zone and testified that Sgt. D.L. Minshew had arrested him for speeding after spotting his car on the way to a local store.

Green said Minshew arrived at the store after he and his two companions had already gone into the store and later questioned him about owning the car and gave him a ticket and eventually placed him under arrest.

Green called the witnesses who testified that Green was not driving the speeding car.

When the district attorney asked Horace McAllister, P.O. Box 565, Raeford, one of Green's witnesses, if he was the one driving the car, he said he was.
