The pharmacist is a health professional with at least 5 years of college education. He or she has passed a State licensing examination and studies the new developments in drug therapy and medical science. The pharmacist is an important 'traffic cop' in the health care delivery system. In dispensing prescription drugs, the pharmacist is the one who monitors drug use by patients who may be simultaneously treated by a physician, dentist, or other prescriber. If the patient tells our pharmacist about other drugs he is taking, the pharmacist can give him expert advice on avoiding harmful drug interaction.

Sumner - Johnson Vows Spoken In Fayetteville

Mrs. John Edwin Sumner

Miss Marian Hope Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Johnson Jr. of Fayetteville, and John Edwin Sumner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney E. Sumner of Lumber Bridge, spoke their marriage vows Saturday afternoon, January 24, at 3:00 p.m., in the Ashworth Presbyterian Church, Fayetteville. The Reverend Angus McQueen of Danville, Va., officiated at the double ring ceremony.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Melody Savage, organist, and Mrs. Joan Northern, soloist, both of Fayetteville.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of crepe polyester designed with empire bodice, high neckline and long full sleeves, with seed pearl trim at the neckline, down the bodice and on the cuffs. The skirt extended into a chapel train. Her four-tier veil of silk illusion was attached to a Camelot cap. She carried a colonial bouquet of white and red carnations and gypsophila with accents of green and long white ribbon streamers.

Miss Linda Sue Johnson of Fayetteville, served as her sister's maid of honor. She wore a floor-length green jumper and white blouse made with high neckline and bishop sleeves. She carried a nosegay of white mums with green ribbon streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Pamela Sumner of Lumber Bridge, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Mary Humphrey of Appalachian State U., and Miss Carol Dew of Fayetteville. They wore red jumpers and white blouses and carried white mum nosegays with red ribbon streamers.

Mr. Sumner served as best man for his son. Ushers were Franklin Johnson III, brother of the bride, Richard Elkins and Steve Beelor, all of Fayetteville, and James Ballance of Red Springs.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church fellowship hall.

The bride is a graduate of Seventy-First High School and attended East Carolina University. She is employed by The Capitol Stores in Fayetteville.

The bridegroom was graduated from Parkton High School and is employed by Bass Air Conditioning in Fayetteville.

The newlyweds will reside at 5106 Tulip Drive, Lafayette Village, Fayetteville.

Rehearsal Party

On Friday night Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Sumner, the bridegroom's parents, entertained with a buffet supper for 25 guests including members of the wedding party, their families, and other special guests.

Assisting the hosts were their daughter, Mrs. Faye McMillan, and Misses Lib and Lois Sumner.
