Miss Calloway, Mr. McNeill Wedding Sunday Afternoon

Miss Debra Faye Calloway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Calloway was wed to Everette William McNeill, II, Sunday afternoon, February 1, at 2:30 in the First Baptist Church. The Reverend Jack Mansfield officiated for the double ring ceremony. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Everette William McNeill of Rt. 1, Shannon.

Music was presented by Lester Southern, organist, and William Daniels, soloist. Mr. Daniels sang the Wedding Prayer, The Lord's Prayer and One Hand, One Heart. The church was decorated with two baskets of mums and glads, green potted plant in the baptistry, and two seven-branch candelabra.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal white gown of silk organza with full A-line skirt. The high neckline with yoke and long sleeves were trimmed with venice lace and crystal pleating. The empire waist was accented with a bow in back and the skirt was accented with wide ruffle of crystal pleating and venice lace. Her chapel length double mantilla was edged with venice lace and held by a camelot cap of venice lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations, baby's breath and rust colored pom poms to match her attendants' dresses.

Mrs. Nancy Morgan of Cary, served as her sister's matron of honor and Miss Cynthia McNeill of East Carolina, sister of the groom, served as maid of honor. They wore formal gowns of polyester with empire silhouette. The gowns had scoop necklines and peek-a-boo backs. The rust gowns were accented at the collar with ivory cluny lace. The long sleeves had a wide ruffle at the waist, trimmed with ivory lace. They wore picture hats and carried bouquets of white pom poms, baby's breath and rust colored roses with off-white streamers.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Larry Calloway, sister-in-law of the bride, Miss Terri Tucker, Miss Marie Hendrix, Miss Susan Bounds, Miss Barbara Douglas, and Miss Anne Evers, all of Raeford. Their gowns and hats were identical to the honor attendants and they carried bouquets of white pom poms, baby's breath and off-white streamers.

The ring bearer was Jeff Morgan of Cary, nephew of the bride, and the flower girl was Melody McNeill of Columbia, S.C., cousin of the bridegroom.

Honorary bridesmaids were Mrs. Nancy L. Rhew of Durham, Misses Sharon Ashburn and Mary Nell Harward of Winston-Salem, Miss Sally Mac Johnson of East Carolina and Miss Debbie Leach of Boone. They wore long formal gowns and carried a single long stemmed white mum with pastel streamers to match their gowns.

Mr. McNeill served as his son's best man. Ushers were Larry Calloway, brother of the bride, and Van McBryde, both of Raeford, Jerry Bruner of Shannon, cousin of the groom, Ronnie Bowen of Norcross, Georgia, cousin of the groom, William Daniels and Linwood Hayes of Lumber Bridge, and Jimmy McDiarmid of Red Springs.

The mother of the bride was attired in a pink formal gown with crocheted bodice and soft flowing flowing skirt and cummerbund of polyester with matching accessories and wore a white orchid corsage.

The mother of the groom was attired in formal A-line gown of open blue polyester with jewel neckline and empire waist. The waist was accented with covered buttons and the sleeves extended into floor length panels. She wore silver accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The bride's grandmother wore a long sleeve floral dress and a white carnation corsage, and the bridegroom's grandmother wore a long sleeve smoke blue dress and a white carnation corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall, given by the bride's parents and assisted by Mrs. Al Potts, Mrs. Mary Ruth Haire, Mrs. Edith McCall, Mrs. Jack Tucker, Mrs. Paul Livingston, and Mrs. Melvin Ashburn. Introducing guests to the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy James and goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ashburn. The bride's register was kept by Miss Linda Calloway of Rockingham, cousin of the bride.

After a wedding trip, the couple will be at home at Route 1, Shannon.

The bride is a graduate of Hoke County High School and a graduate of Sir Walter Beauty Academy of Fayetteville, and will be employed at Jean's Beauty Salon in Raeford.

Mrs. Everette William McNeill II

The groom is a graduate of Hoke County High School and attended N.C. State University and is employed in farming.

Bridesmaids' Luncheon

The bridesmaids luncheon was given by the bride's mother in the Calloway home on Saturday. The dining room table was covered with white linen cloth and centered with a red and white valentine arrangement where the bride's attendants and guests were seated. The bride was presented a corsage of red and white carnations. The menu included turkey and dressing, ham, string beans, potato salad, cranberry salad, cherry tarts, and red velvet cake.
