Woman's Club

Education Dept

Members of the Education Department of the Raeford Woman's Club met Tuesday, February 3, in the home of Mrs. Tommie Upchurch with Mrs. Ed Willis co-hostess.

First, of the two part program was Mrs. Tommie Upchurch, who spoke briefly about investments, informing the group how to choose land for purchase and increase its value.

Mrs. Jack Mansfield, a teacher at Upchurch Junior High School, presented the Occupational Explorations, a pilot program at the school. She used slides taken of local students during classroom work and narrated on the activities. Students are exposed to the OE twice weekly and some of their studies include bookkeeping, typing, sewing, woodworking, home-making, drafting and designing.

Mrs. Mansfield displayed some of the finished products of the various classes. The presentation was very informative, as many of the group were unaware Hoke County has this program.

Home Life Dept

The Home Life Department of the Raeford Woman's Club met Tuesday night February 3 at the home of Mrs. Clyde Knox.

A Valentine motif was used in the live flower arrangements throughout the Knox home.

Miss Beth Johnson, teacher in the Hoke County School system was the guest speaker. She gave an interesting program on Weight Watchers.

At the conclusion of the meeting Mrs. Knox served a cherry dessert and hot spiced tea.
