Dinner, Party For Mrs. Phillips

Mrs. Steve Phillips was honored at a dinner party Tuesday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. John Walker. Hostesses were Mrs. George Stone and Mrs. David Smith of Southern Pines and Mrs. Robert Calhoun of Raeford.

Sixteen guests were seated at the dining room table and auxiliary tables. An arrangement of mixed spring flowers centered the dining table and miniature arrangements were placed on the smaller tables.

After dinner Mrs. Phillips opened the stork gifts, showered on her by those present.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips were honored at a drop-in on Saturday evening from 7:30 till 8:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Semones. Other hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Houston. The couple was showered with gifts by those present. After the party the group attended the Cosmopolitan Club dance.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ryan Boyles announce the birth of a daughter, Susan Ryan, April 1, at Cape Fear Valley Hospital. Mrs. Boyles is the former Sandra Blythe.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Young of Roseboro, formerly of Raeford, announce the birth of a son, Johnathan Reed, on March 25 at Moore Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Young is the former Jean Russell.

The constant pounding of feet on concrete pavements causes many adults in cities to suffer serious foot ailments. If you are overweight, it increases pavement shock. Avoid fashionable shoes that are harmful to foot health. At home, remove shoes and put on soft slippers. Walk barefoot on rugs, on a clean lawn, or sand beaches, whenever possible as healthful exercise for the feet.

We wish you good health
