Civic League Gathered Apr. 6

The Hoke County Civic League met Tuesday April 6, at Rockfish Grove Baptist Church at 7:30, its first meeting at Rockfish Church.

In loving memory of Alton Eugene McGirt
By his Mother Mary McGirt Smith

Eugene would have been 22 years old the 15th of April, but our Heavenly Father called him home October 23rd 1975. He was such a good boy, he brought laughter and joy where ever he went. He served his country three years in the Navy with honor. He loved his home town of Raeford and the people in it more than any one I know. Now I feel that he is serving God and fulfilling a mission that he was called to do. We, his family were so saddened at his sudden death. We have so many blessed memories of this boy and his love for us. As his Mother, I'd like to say on his birthday, thank you God for this son that we had for 21 years.
