Brown - Cox Married In Lumberton

Miss Bonnie Faye Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Cox of Lumberton, and George Parker Brown, son of Walter D. Brown of Raeford and the late Mrs. Brown, were married Sunday, April 11, at 3:00 p.m., in Godwin Heights Baptist Church, Lumberton. The Rev. Leroy Calder officiated for the double ring ceremony.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. James Maxwell of Shannon, organist, and Rudolph Locklear of Pembroke, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin and Brussels lace designed with high neckline and yoke of lace, centered with family pearls, bishop sleeves with deep cuffs of English net and lace, and bell skirt featuring a deep tiered applique of lace and net with a fluted lace ruffle around the hemline. Her long veil, bordered with Brussels lace, and a chapel-length illusion veil were attached to a madonna from of Alecon lace. She carried a bouquet of yellow sweetheart roses and daisies.

Mrs. Charles Campbell of Raeford was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. William Neil McCormick of Lumberton, sister of the bride, and Miss Diane Sacry of Lumberton. They wore yellow empire gowns with net of green and white daisies and picture hats and carried arm bouquets of long-stemmed yellow sweetheart roses.

Roland Brown of Fayetteville, served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Walter Brown of Georgia, brother of bridegroom, and Charlels Campbell of Raeford.

The bride's parents entertained with a reception in their home following the ceremony.

After a wedding trip to Long Beach, the newlyweds will be at home at Route 1, Raeford.

The bride is a graduate of Lumberton High School and Womick Selenia Business College and was employed with Robeson Technical Institute in Lumberton.

Mr. Brown, a graduate of Hoke County High School, attended Air Police Academy, Durham Institute of Barbering, and Basic Police Science School. He is now attending Robeson Technical Institute to obtain an A.S. degree in Police Science Technology and is employed as a patrolman with the Raeford Police Department.

Minshew of College Dr., was escorted by Chris Seawell of Southern Pines and NCSU. Her chaperone was Mrs. Lawrence Bounds.

Miss Hall Hostess To Raeford U.D.C.

Raeford Chapter #1279 of the U.D.C. met at the home of Miss Josephine Hall on Friday afternoon. Mrs. K.A. MacDonald was co-hostess.

The president, Mrs. Floyd Monroe, presided and gave the report for the year which she planned to present at the district meeting in Lumberton on April 10. Mrs. Herman Koonce, Mrs. George Monroe and Mrs. Glenn Wood were to accompany Mrs. Monroe to the meeting.

Mrs. Glenn Wood gave the program which was on Confederate Cavalrymen, Wizards of the Saddle.

Mrs. Gerald Wright was welcomed as a visitor at the meeting.

The hostess served a dessert course. During the social hour members enjoyed reading a number of poems written by Hoke County students, which will be placed in district competition.

Bridal Shower For Miss McLean

Miss Mary Wallis McLean of Fayetteville, formerly of Raeford, bride-elect of April 24, was honored on Saturday evening when Mrs. J.T. Haire entertained at her home at 312 East Prospect Avenue.

Miss McLean and her mother, Mrs. Wallace McLean, were both presented corsages, after which the bride-elect was showered with miscellaneous gifts by those present.

The dining table was centered with an arrangement of mixed spring flowers flanked by lighted tapers. Mrs. McLean poured punch and Mrs. Martin Wood, cousin of the honoree, served the cake.

Miss McLean will be married to Lt. Thomas Russell Bolin in a ceremony at the J.F. Kennedy Memorial Chapel at Fort Bragg.
