School Celebrates Books, Plans Apr. 28 Festivities

West Hoke School celebrated National Library Week and announced plans for a Bicentennial celebration April 28.

The school library club presented a program last week centering on classification of books, library decorum, and featuring poems and songs about libraries and books. The Club composed a song, "All I Want Is a Good Book to Read", sung to the tune of "All I Want for Christmas".

The program ended with a question and answer session in which members of the audience won prizes for giving correct answers. The club is under the direction of Mrs. J. McAllister, librarian.

Tentative schedule for the April 28 program is:

Fifth grades will do a square dance and the Virginia Reel. Fourth grades will do the Charleston and a modern dance. Second and third grades will present a display of arts and crafts on the Bicentennial. First grades have learned patriotic songs and a march and have made Bicentennial hats. The kindergarten will do a red, white, and blue march.

Piney Grove Sets Easter Cantata

Piney Grove Baptist Church will host The Sandhill Choral Society April 18, at 7:00 p.m. in an Easter Cantata "The Glory of Easter."

The Choral Society is under the direction of Russell McAllister of Raeftord, accompanied by Robert Murphy of Southern Pines. Featured as soloists for the evening are: Gloria McLaughlin, soprano; Helen McLaurin, alto; Spencer Dockery, tenor; Allen Morrison, baritone.

The public is invited.
