Bolin - McLean Vows Spoken At Ft. Bragg

Miss Mary Wallis McLean of Fayetteville, daughter of Mrs. Wallace McLean and the late Mr. McLean of Raeford, and Lieutenant Thomas Russell Bolin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bolin of Spokane, Wash., spoke their marriage vows Saturday at 4:00 p.m., in the J.F. Kennedy Memorial Chapel at Ft. Bragg. Father Kita officiated for the double ring ceremony.

Wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Sue Mattieu, organist, and Mrs. John Self, soloist, who sang, Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee, Because, and the Lord's Prayer.

The bride was given in marriage by Jack Crumpler, her brother-in-law, and attended by her sister, Mrs. Crumpler, as matron of honor, and by Miss Shelley Bolin as maid of honor.

Lieutenant Michael Mische was best man. Sabrebearers were Msg. Joel Schenklerberger, Sgt. Henry Kohn, Sgt. Gut Whitmer, Sgt. Robert Keaton, Sgt. Richard Munoz, Sgt. Archard Uttley, Sgt. Michael Kendall, and Sp. 4 Rickey Barrientos.

Children in the wedding were Miss Donna Marie Bramble, flower girl, and Master Josh Crumpler, ring bearer.

The mother of the bride wore a pale blue dress and the bridegroom's mother was attired in mint green.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the Ft. Bragg Officers' Club.

Mrs. Joel Schenklerberger served cake and Mrs. Wes Fowler poured punch. Mrs. J.K. Bramble presided at the register.

Following a wedding trip the newlyweds will be at home at Gardens of Loch Lomond, Fayetteville.

The bride, a graduate of Hoke County High School, received a B.S. degree from Pembroke State University. The bridegroom graduated from Washington State University.
