COMMENT

The long dark dress worn in the street parade in Raeford 15 years ago was laid in the shade by the bright beautiful long dresses worn by the ladies who passed by in the basement of the Methodist Church in Raeford last Thursday and the little old bonnet also worn by the writer looked about like a knot on a pine log beside the wonderful display of beautiful bonnets.

Accent On Agriculture

Revisions in the government's beef grading standards, which went into effect recently, are designed to improve the accuracy for measuring eating quality and identifying yield of saleable beef.

Officials of the Agricultural Marketing Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, said although the changes are not drastic, they will add precision and efficiency to beef production and marketing.

Immediate effects of the changes on consumers will be threefold. There will be slightly leaner beef in the Prime and Choice grades, a redesigned and more restrictive Good grade, and a more uniform eating quality of beef in the Good and Choice grades.

AMS officials cited the most significant effect, however, as a long range one -- a possible

ALWAYS VALUABLE

Tobacco started out as a valuable commodity in the Jamestown colony in 1612 and has been a valuable trade item ever since. Records of the era indicate that tobacco was such a major factor in the economy of the first permanent English colony that it was grown in the streets and that wives were brought and ministers paid with tobacco.

Benjamin Franklin promoted Philadelphia as the "City nearest the Centre" of the Colonies, National Geographic says. Franklin helped to light, pave, and patrol its streets; to win its selection as a general post office; to found its academy and philosophical society; and to build its churches and Pennsylvania's first synagogue.
