

Abbott-Burnett Wedding In Williamsburg, Va.

Miss Paula Briggs Burnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burnett of Raeford, and John Fletcher Abbott IV, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.F. Abbott of Harrington, Delaware, were married Friday, May 21, at 11:00 a.m., at the Bruton Parish Church in Williamsburg, Va. The Rev. Malcolm Turnbull officiated for the double ring ceremony.

Jacque Darling, organist, provided a program of nuptial music.

Matron of honor for the bride was her sister, Mrs. Paul Nicholas of Columbia, Md., who wore a mint flowered gown fashioned with empire waistline and bell sleeves. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of spring flowers and wore a broad brim hat with mint green scarf.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a lace oyster shell gown designed with baby blue overlay on the empire bodice and three-quarter length bell sleeves. Her wide brim hat was accented with matching blue satin ribbon and she carried an old fashioned bouquet of spring flowers.

William H. Abbott of Harrington, Del., served as best man for his brother.

The mother of the bride wore a street-length yellow silk dress with matching jacket, and the bridegroom's mother was attired in a printed beige jersey dress.

Following the ceremony the parents of the bridal couple were hosts for a luncheon at the 1776 Inn in Williamsburg.

For travel the bride wore an orange gabardine jumpsuit with scarf accent. After a wedding trip to Charleston, S.C., the newlyweds will be at home in Virginia Beach, Va.

The bride, a graduate of Hoke County High School, received her B.S. degree in mathematics from East Carolina University and is employed by Chesapeake, Va. School System.

The bridegroom received a B.S. degree in history from Atlantic Christian College and is also employed by the Chesapeake School System.

Honors Shown Kathryn Gillis

Miss Kathryn Gillis, who will marry George Hall on June 5, was honored recently with a bridal luncheon given by Mrs. Neill M. McInnis Jr.

The bride-elect received a corsage of mixed flowers and a hostess gift.

Previous to this affair, Miss Gillis was feted with a floating shower at the fellowship hall of Galatia Presbyterian Church.

Hostesses were Mrs. D.P. Bruton, Mrs. James Finch, Mrs. Malcolm Gillis, Mrs. Harmon Lindsay, Mrs. Lewis Lindsay, Mrs. Harold Monroe, Miss Caroline Parker, Mrs. D.B. Ray, Mrs. M.G. Ray, Mrs. K.P. Ritter, Mrs. Eugene Smathers and Mrs. James Teague. Approximately 60 guests attended.

Saturday afternoon, Mrs. E.L. McKethan Jr. entertained with a bridal tea from 4 to 6 at her home in Fayetteville. Other hostesses were Mrs. Raymond Maxwell of Raeford, Mrs. E.L. McKethan and Mrs. William A. McKethan.

Receiving guests with the honoree were her mother, Mrs. John D. Gillis, the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Harold D. Hall, the grandmothers, Mrs. Alton L. Miller Sr. and Mrs. William McN. Gillis, and aunts, Mrs. William K. Gillis and Mrs. Alton L. Miller.

The tea table was covered with an Army-Navy cloth and centered with a candelabrum arrangement of yellow and white daisies and babies' breath. Mrs. Bill McPhaul and Mrs. James Plummer Jr. of Raeford, assisted in serving petits fours, bridal mints, cheese biscuits, chicken salad filled pastry shells, nuts and punch.

Miss Gillis was presented a corsage and gift from the hostesses. The mothers of the bridal couple received corsages.

Approximately 75 guests called during the afternoon.

Mrs. Johnson

Mrs. June Johnson was hostess to the members of both her bridge clubs on Tuesday evening of last week.

A dessert course was served before the game. Three tables were in play. At the conclusion of the evening high score prizes were awarded to Mrs. Carlton Niven and Mrs. Berder Niven.

Miss McNeill Is Bride Of Walter Lee Priest

Miss Trudy Dell McNeill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack L. McNeill of Southern Pines, and Walter Lee Priest, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Priest of Raeford, were united in marriage Sunday, May 16, at Page Memorial United Methodist Church, Aberdeen, by the Rev. Wilbur Jackson.

Music was furnished by Miss June Melvin, organist, and Mrs. Glenda Davis, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white gown of sheer organza with lace used on the cuffs of the bishop sleeves, high neckline and pinafore bodice. Scalloped lace bands with ruffle edge fashioned a deep garland on the skirt front and bordered the chapel train. Her lace-edged fingertip veil was worn in a madonna drape and she carried a bouquet of white carnations, blue daisies and baby's breath encircled in greenery, with blue and white streamers.

Jackie McNeill of Southern Pines, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a halter dress of pink, blue and lavender floral design on white with a matching cape coverup that tied in front. She carried a bouquet of blue, white and pink carnations, daisies and baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Sandra Briggman of Southern Pines, sister of the bride, Gail Wushke of Greenville, S.C., and Susan Tyndall of Dunn, sister of the bridegroom. Their dresses were identical to the honor attendant's.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Ushers were Randy Byrd of Aberdeen, Aaron Hollingsworth of Southern Pines, and Mike McInnis of Raeford.

After the ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall. The couple then left for their wedding trip. They are at home in Southern Pines.
