

COUNTY YARD - The home of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Sawyer in the Montrose community was selected 'County Yard of the Week' by extension homemakers for its well-kept appearance, Judging of yards continues through June as part of the beautification campaign.

Background Scripture: Matthew 16:18; Luke 1:1-4; Acts 1 through 2. Devotional Reading: Joel 2:28-32

A number of years ago when English cleric J.B. Phillips wrote his translation of the Book of Acts, he entitled it: THE YOUNG CHURCH IN ACTION. The title is appropriately chosen because that is what this exciting book is about: inspiring acts of faith by some of Jesus' disciples in the early Christian Church.

Luke—for he is the writer of Acts—might just as easily chosen to write of the beliefs of the early apostles, but the story of the early church is not one of doctrines, but church is not one of doctrines, but of a burning, compelling faith expressed in a multitude of actions and deeds that seemed to turn "the world upside down"! (Acts 17:6)

To be sure, the Book of Acts is not devoid of teachings and, in fact, we fine within it several "sermons" delivered by some of the apostles. But were these express.

apostles. But even these expressions of faith emphasized action, things done more than said.

For example, look at Peter's sermon on the Day of Pentecost.

sermon on the Day of Pentecost. Even Peter's opportunity to preach on that day was the result of some acts by the disciples of Jesus. People passing by heard the followers of Jesus speaking in many languages. Foreigners visiting in Jerusalem heard the message of Jerusalem heard the message of Jesus Christ in their own tongue! (Note that on Pentecost the "other tongues" that were spoken by the power of the Holy Spirit were foreign languages which could be understood, not unintelligible "tongues"). Spectators were amazed and demanded: "What does this mean?" (2:12).

One cannot help wondering whether Simon Peter had been waiting for just such an opportuni-ty. At any rate, the question was the perfect cue for him to begin speaking.

And of what does he speak?

Mostly about actions: "Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with mighty works and wonders which God did through him in your midst . . ." (2:22). Simon Peter will speak later of the teachings of Jesus, but his primary appeal is in terms of the acts of Jesus: the wondrous deeds he did, the manner in which he lived, the the manner in which he lived, the courageous way in which he died.

This approach struck a responsive chord with many of his listeners for the Old Testament is primarily the story of the mighty acts of God through his people. The Jew was much more influenced by what God did than by what he was reported to have said. So, Peter appeals to them by reminding them of what God has done through Jesus of Nazareth and these mighty acts themselves. Peter asserts, are the proof that Jesus is the Christ whom God had promised.

And what is to be their response to all this: a debate on the theological issues? a commemorative ritual? a symbolic gesture? No. once again the focus was to be on an act: "Repent and be baptized... . . and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit"!

Upper Room

Read Matthew 16:13-20

"But who do you say that I am?" (Matthew 16:15, RSV)

I had spent time going through books and gathering material hoping to be helpful to a teenager who had come to me with a questioning mind. But she tossed them aside and looked me straight them aside and looked me straight in the eyes. "I don't want to know what anybody else thinks," she said. "I want to know what you think".

Jesus was in the area of Caesarea lippi. Excitement had run from village to village like a swift courier. Was He prophet or ordinary man?

Jesus gathered the twelve and asked, "Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?" Then the spontaneous answer: "Some say spontaneous answer: "Some say John the Baptist, others say Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." But Jesus swept the answer aside with the brush of another question: "But who do you say that I am?"

Christian testimony may change its form, but it never can be outdated. We are all asked, "What does Jesus mean to you?" What will our answer be?

our answer be?

PRAYER: Dear Master, we may not be able to answer all the questions, but please create within us an open mind and such an awareness of Your daily presence that our testimony may be honest and to Your glory. Amen.
