Service Personnel

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. -- An official at Lackland AFB, Tex. has announced the graduation of Airman First Class William R. Guin Jr. from the U.S. Air Force's security police specialist course conducted by the Air Training Command.

Airman Guin, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. William R. Guin of Rt. 2, Raeford, is now trained in security and law enforcement and will serve at Upper Heyford RAF station, England. Completion of the course enables the airman to receive academic credits through the Community College of the Air Force.

The airman is a 1974 graduate of Hoke High School.

Harrison Dies In Raleigh

Graveside services for former Raeford resident Henry David (Harry) Harrison Jr. were held in Raeford Cemetery Monday at 2 P.M. with Rev. John Ropp, Dr. Albert Edwards and Rev. Doug Kelly officiating.

Harrison, 53, of Raleigh, died Saturday following a heart attack.

A native of Martin County, Harrison practiced law in Raeford from 1950 to 1968 and was a well-known Democrat.

A graduate of Atlantic Christian College, he received his law degree from Wake Forest University.

Harrison was a former Raeford city attorney and a past director of the Raeford Savings and Loan Association. An active figure in the Democratic party, he served as a national committeeman for the Young Democrats Club.

At the time of his death, he was chief counsel for the Employment Security Commission in Raleigh. He joined the ESC in 1968 as a staff attorney and became chief counsel in 1973.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Gladys Baucom Harrison; a son, David J. Harrison of Shelby; a daughter, Miss

Henry D. Harrison

Martha J. Harrison of Charlotte; two sisters Mrs. Fannie Mae Mowley of Williamston; and Mrs. Viola Bohmer of Baltimore, Md.; and a brother, Leroy Harrison of Williamston.

Board Approves Nine For Next School Year

Nine personnel were approved for employment for the 1976-77 school year by the board of education at their regular meeting Monday.

Elected were Janet Maxwell Plummer, Mary Lee Spencer, Beth Jordan, Pamela Blair Simmons, Ricky Lee Stallings, Sandra M. Horne, Jacqueline M. Gladney, Sally M. Johnson and Annie A. Swindell. Other business on the agenda included the awarding of the adult contract for 1975-76 to A.K. Lovin Co. of Red Springs for $2,500.

Margaret McKenzie was appointed as the finance officer.

It was agreed that the board pay

$10 for each retiring teacher to give them life membership in the North Carolina Association of Educators.

The budget was amended by moving $40,000 from capital outlay to current expenses to provide hospitalization, social security, and retirement benefits, and to pay the salaries of two extra teachers.

The board also assumed the responsibility of the Comprehensive Employment Training Act Youth, which will involve about 61 workers.

It was agreed that two portable classroom buildings be sold to Red Springs school system and two be leased to the Sandhills Community College.

The Veterans Administration provides benefits for certain widows, widowers, children and parents of veterans.

Regular, continued use of mineral oil preparations for constipation is not without its dangers, writes a consultant in the American Medical Assn. Journal. The oil might be breathed into the lungs, causing a kind of pneumonia that can be fatal. Also, the oil may interfere with absorption of some important fat-soluble nutrients in food. Natural foods, such as fruit, which have a mildly laxative effect are best used to relieve constipation.
