

City Girl Is Miss Aberdeen

Miss Aberdeen, Mary Margaret Sawyer, is in Winston-Salem this week vying for the title of Miss North Carolina. She was accompanied to Winston-Salem on Monday, June 7, by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sawyer of Raeford.

During the week, Mary Margaret will be competing with 52 other contestants, and on Saturday evening, June 12th, a new Miss North Carolina will be crowned. Television coverage of the pageant will begin at 8:00 P.M. Before leaving for Winston-Salem, Mary Margaret was presented a gift from her sponsors, the Aberdeen Jaycees and a gift certificate from the Aberdeen Jaycettes.

Each contestant will wear a costume in the Opening Number that is representative of her town's history. Mary Margaret has chosen to represent the Aberdeen and Rockfish Railroad, one of the oldest and largest shortline railroads in the state, and probably in the nation. Her costume will be a pin-striped jumper characteristic of the coveralls once worn by the trainmen, a white shirt, red bandana scarf, and an official railroad cap with the "A & R" emblem. As her moment to the other contestants, she will give each of them a railroad cap identical to the one she will be wearing. The caps and emblems were generously donated by Mr. Willard Formyduval, President of the Aberdeen and Rockfish Railroad.

Mary Margaret is contestant number 26 in the pageant and during the week she will be appearing in three main areas of competition. On Wednesday evening, she will appear on stage in evening gown competition. She will perform her talent on Thursday night, which is a vocal solo entitled, "You're Gonna Hear from Me". On Friday evening, Mary Margaret will compete in the swimsuit area of judging.

In preparation for the pageant, Mary Margaret has studied under the direction of Mrs. Mary Archie McNeill of Raeford and Mrs. Martha Flowers at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. During her year as Miss Aberdeen, she has appeared in fifteen pageants and festivals and five parades all over the state. Her warm smile and personality have won her many friendships over the past twelve months.

The Aberdeen Jaycees join Mary Margaret in thanking the following businesses that have contributed to her pageant wardrobe: Aberdeen Rockfish Railroad, Belk's in Aberdeen, Dak's in Center Park, Storey's, Aberdeen 5 & 10, Western Auto in Aberdeen, Mack's, Bryan Drug, Collins Co.,

Cato's, Roses, Winn Dixie, Revco Drug, Craig Drug, and Trudell's.

The pageant will be held each evening at the Winston-Salem Memorial Coliseum. On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights, the pageant will begin at 7:30 P.M. and the price per ticket will be $4.00. The tickets for the final performance on Saturday night will be $5.00 and it will begin at 8:00 P.M.

IN MEMORY OF EDWARD EARL ANDREWS

Written By Lena H. Terrell

The children's father, dear and grand
Who lived with kindness in his hand,
Whose life portrayed the Master's plan
Has now passed to the Eternal land.

That place where souls of righteous men
Are blessed and saved from earthly sin
There where those golden bells begin
The welcome song that brings them in

That home of glory, far off shore
With angels greeting at the door,
With loved ones who have gone before
Heaven - And at home forever more.

"Well done" upon this earthly sod
Our Daddy's gone to live with God.
