Daniels - Tiller Wedding At Antioch Church

Miss Wanda Lea Tiller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Marvin Tiller of Denver, Colorado, and Harry Sammons Daniels Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniels of Lumber Bridge, were married at 7 p.m., Saturday, June 5, at Antioch Presbyterian Church. The Reverend Henry W. Taxis of Minneapolis, Minnesota, uncle of the bride, officiated.

Harlan Duenow, organist, presented a number of selections from compositions by Bach, Handel, Massenet, Franck, Liszt, and others. William Daniels, brother of the groom sang "Bless this House". During the ceremony he sang "The Wedding Prayer" and Malotte's "Lord's Prayer".

The sanctuary was enhanced by palms grouped in the chancel and choir loft forming a background of greenery. Above the chancel, lighted candles encircled a focal arrangement of mums, shrimp colored gladioli and wedding roses, and baby's breath. Lighted candles in tree-shaped candelabra also adorned the setting. Angular candelabra flanked matching pedestal arrangements. Greenery at the center of the choir railing formed the background for the kneeling bench.

Family pews were marked by hurricane lamps.

Escorted by her parents, the bride wore an empire gown of candlelight organza and hand-embroidered Alencon lace, re-embroidered with seed pearls. Her cathedral veil was held by a circle of shrimp colored wedding roses, baby's breath and stephanotis. She carried a cascade bouquet of shrimp colored wedding roses, stephanotis and English ivy.

Mrs. James F. Wise of Fort Bragg, and Mrs. Robert H. Richau of Denver, sister of the bride, served as matrons of honor. Maid of honor was Miss Connie Larsen of Denver. Bridesmaids were Miss Linda Hagen, Seattle, Washington; Miss Brenda Boddie, Birmingham, Alabama; Mrs. Hal Lane Jr., Valdosta, Georgia; and Miss Sallie Mac Johnson, Raeford. They wore dresses of shrimp chiffon with hand-embroidered capelets. Their bouquets were shrimp-wedding roses, baby's breath and lace fern, joined with a garland of lace fern and baby's breath.

Honorary bridesmaid was Miss Judy Daniels of Raeford, sister of the groom. She was attired in a yellow print organza dress and carried a long stemmed yellow mum.

Mrs. Tiller, mother of the bride, wore a blue ensemble with pink rosebud corsage. Mrs. Daniels, mother of the groom, wore a mint green ensemble with yellow rosebud corsage.

Flower girls were Kristin Anne and Traci Lynn Richau of Denver, nieces of the bride. They wore dresses similar to the bride's attendants. Neil Currie of Chatham, Va., cousin of the groom, served as ring bearer.

Mr. Daniels was his son's best man.

Groomsmen were Robert H. Richau, Denver, brother-in-law of the bride; William F. Daniels of Raeford, brother of the groom; Alfonso A. Consentine, New York, N.Y.; James F. Wise, Fort Bragg; Rufus J. Estes, Titusville, Fla.; Ronald J. Kirby, Fayetteville.

The guest register in the vestibule was presided over by Miss Judy Daniels and was adorned by a peach tree.

Rehearsal Party

On Friday evening the groom's parents entertained the wedding party and out of town guests at their home. Tables were placed around the pool which was accented with a floating flower arrangement of gladioli, mums, daisies, caladiums and greenery. Hurricane lamps and Hawaiian luau torches were used around the yard. Approximately 55 guests attended. The groom presented gifts to his groomsmen.

Bridesmaids Luncheon

Misses Kristin Ann and Traci Lyn Richau of Denver, Col., were hostesses for their aunt's bridesmaid luncheon at the Holiday Inn North, Lumberton.

The bride presented ring watches to her wedding attendants.

Sunday Buffet

Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Daniels honored the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Marvin Tiller of Denver, Col., and other out-of-town guests at their home Sunday with a buffet luncheon. Places were set throughout the house for the 18 guests.

Pre-Nuptial Parties

Miss Wanda Lee Tiller and Harry S. Daniels Jr. were honored with several parties last week before their wedding at Antioch Presbyterian Church on Saturday evening.

The Antioch Presbyterian Church was the scene for a shower in honor of Miss Tiller on Monday evening. Hostesses were Mrs. Fred Johnson, Mrs. Fred Johnson Jr., Mrs. Will Evans, Miss Sallie Johnson and Mrs. W.B. McDiarmid.

Fifty guests attended and were served from an appointed table appropriately decorated. Mrs. Harry Daniels, mother of the bridegroom-elect, served punch. Misses Sarah and Margaret McKenzie, Mr. Daniels' aunts, assisted in serving petits fours, cheese wafers, nuts and mints.

Mrs. C.D. Bounds, Mrs. Jack Pope and Mrs. William Lamont entertained with a luncheon Wednesday noon at the home of Mrs. Jerry Goza. Places were laid for twelve guests.

Miss Tiller was presented with a gift of a silver Revere bowl.

On Wednesday evening, the bridal couple and the Daniels family were entertained with a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E.W. McNeill II. Other hosts were Mr. and Mrs. E.W. McNeill Jr. and their daughter, Cynthia. Their gift to the couple was a silver-based crystal salad bowl.

The bridal couple was honored Thursday evening at the K&W Cafeteria in Fayetteville by Mr. Daniels' aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. H.A. McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harden, and Misses Sarah and Margaret McKenzie. Thirty-five guests attended.

The hosts presented the couple with a silver pitcher.

Bridal Parties Honor Miss Julia Anne Gibson

Miss Julia Anne Gibson, bride-elect of June 26, was honored on several occasions last week.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Orville Crowder, Mrs. Archie Johnson, Mrs. Jerry Williams and Mrs. Larry Gibson feted Miss Gibson with a floating shower at the home of Mrs. Crowder.

The honoree was presented a corsage of white carnations and showered with miscellaneous gifts from those present.

The dining table was decorated in a color note of pink and white. Guests were served decorated bridal squares, punch, peanuts and mints.

Friday evening Mrs. Marie Brown, Miss Evelyn Brown and Mrs. H.A. Cameron were hostesses at a dinner party for Miss Gibson and her fiancé, Jerry Tucker, at their home on North Main Street.

Couples were served a spaghetti supper from tables spread with green checked tablecloths and centered with candles.

Miss Gibson was presented with a corsage of daisies and gifts of crystal and china.

The home of Mrs. John Walker was the setting for a luncheon on Saturday given by Mrs. Tom Cameron, Mrs. Hubert Cameron and Mrs. T.B. Upchurch.

The dining table was centered with an arrangement of pink roses. Auxiliary tables were centered with miniature arrangements similar to the bride-elect's table.

Miss Gibson received gifts of china and crystal and a corsage of shasta daisies.

Saturday evening Miss Gibson and Mr. Tucker shared honors at a cookout on the back porch and in the yard at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raz Autry at Arabia Golf Club.

Co-hosts were Skip Autry, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Sawyer and Peter, Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Wood and David, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Young and Sammy.

Red checked tablecloths and red candles made a festive setting for the hamburger cookout, followed by homemade ice cream.

Miss Gibson was presented a corsage and she and Mr. Tucker were given a hibachi and cook-out utensils.

July Bride-Elect

Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Teal announce the engagement of Mrs. Teal's daughter, Miss Linda Joyce James, to Larry Dale Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Eugene Foster of Route 1, Aberdeen. The wedding is planned for July 11, at Bethel Presbyterian Church.
