The two story hours in the library on Tuesdays, during summer vacation will be at 9:30 and 10:30 A.M. Young folks who wish to attend may come at either hour.

We are sorry we will not be in the new library for the Fourth of July celebration but the program planned for that date will go on as scheduled. So many of you keep asking when and we are also sorry we can't give a date. We too are real anxious even though we have a lot of work to do here to get ready to go. We know as far as having everything in perfect order before we could move certainly is out of the question. So much library work doesn't show at the check out counter. Anyway keep your spirits up, we will be moving soon. We have come a long way. Last time this year we didn't have even a partially finished building. We do know it's over there and we are real proud of our county folks for helping make it all possible.
