Hough-Jones Couple Speak Wedding Vows

Mrs. Leon Hough

Miss Shirley Mae Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Jones of Raeford, and Leon Hough, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde L. Hough of Rockfish, spoke their marriage vows Sunday, June 13, at 3:00 p.m., at New Pilgrim Holiness Church in Raeford. Bishop Wallace Shields of Winston-Salem officiated.

Wedding music was presented by Miss Pamela S. Dockery, cousin of the bride, pianist, and Leo McRae and Danya Dockery, cousins of the bride, vocalists, who sang "The Lord's Prayer" as the benediction.

An altar arrangement of snapdragons and pink and white carnations and candles was backed with palms. Family pews were marked with bows of pink ribbon.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore an empire gown of candlelight organza and hand-embroidered Chantilly lace. Her veil was held by a cluster of hand-embroidered roses and she carried a cascade bouquet of pastel wedding roses, stephanotis and English ivy with pastel ribbon streamers.

Miss Patricia Jones of Atlanta, Ga., sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a lavender polyester knit dress draped with a wide cape trimmed with matching fringe and carried palm fronds with pink carnations and ribbon streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Brenda Jones, sister of the bride, Miss Carolyn Shaw, cousin of the bride, Misses Evelyn and Irene Eden, the bridegroom's cousins, and Mrs. Denese Dupree, all of Raeford; and Miss Gail Shields of Winston-Salem. Their pink dresses were made like the honor attendant's and they carried similar flowers.

The flower girl, Angela Jones, niece of the bride, wore a lavender formal dress with embroidered lace.

Dinner Parties Given For Miss Gibson, Fiance

Miss Julia Ann Gibson, bride-elect of June, was honored with a dinner party given by Mrs. John Campbell and Mrs. June Johnson at the Campbell home on Thursday evening of last week.

An arrangement of white lilies centered the dining table where six guests were seated, and pink rosebuds centered the two auxiliary tables where places were marked for eight guests.

Miss Gibson was presented with a corsage of white gardenias and a gift of silver in her chosen pattern.

Miss Gibson and Jerry Tucker were entertained at supper Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Howell, Tom, Anne and David Howell at their home.

Tables were placed on the lawn for picnic supper of fried chicken and accessories with home-made ice cream for dessert.

The couple was remembered with a gift.

Miss Jennie Hubbard of Roanoke, Va., a classmate of the bride-elect at East Carolina University, who will be one of the bridesmaids, was an out-of-town guest on both occasions.

The home of Mrs. Julius Jordan was the scene for a dinner party Monday night in honor of Miss Gibson. Co-hostesses were Misses Anna and Kelly Jordan.

Dinner was served buffet style from the dining table, decorated with a large arrangement of pink roses.

Guests were seated at three small tables placed in the living room.

A corsage of white daisies and a gift of pewter were presented to the honoree.

Dessert Bridge Fetes Mrs. Norma Wilburn

Mrs. Norma Wilburn, whose wedding to Avery Connell took place Saturday afternoon at the Raeford Methodist Church, was entertained at a dessert-bridge on Monday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. W.K. Morgan, with Mrs. Bob Gentry and Mrs. Nathan McGee, co-hostesses.

Guests were seated at card tables, centered with arrangements of roses, and served a dessert of bridal cake squares, ice cream and coffee.

The dining table, centered with a large arrangement of multi-colored roses, held an assortment of confections and a bowl of punch where guests served themselves during progressions.

At the end of the game high score prize went to Mrs. William McDonald, and second high to Mrs. Larry Phillips.

The hostesses remembered the honoree with a corsage and a framed Pennsylvania Dutch print marriage certificate.
