Disadvantaged Kids Get Chance For Camp

This summer one hundred underprivileged children from across North Carolina, most of whom have never been camping before, will get to enjoy a week in a tent at a military base.

Camp Renee, a special camp jointly sponsored by the North Carolina Division of Social Services and the Domestic Action Program of the 18th Airborne Division, will be held for the fourth year at Fort Bragg on June 28th through July 3rd. Each county department of social services is given the opportunity to sponsor an eleven or twelve year old camper, and local civic organizations and churches assist in preparing the children for camp.

The camp will provide a wide range of recreational, social developmental, and educational activities including a tour of Fort Bragg and Pope Air Force Base, a special parachute jump, a magic show, a martial arts demonstration, and a first aid course sponsored by the Red Cross. Other activities will include swimming, arts and crafts, hikes, and campfires.

The success of Camp Renee will be assured by several private companies who have donated goods that will be given to each child. Blue Bell Corporation of Greensboro; Century Group, Inc., of Salisbury; Converse Corporation of Lumberton; Rocky Mount Cord Company; Stedman Corporation of Asheboro; Troutman Industries of Troutman; and Southern School Supply and Wachovia Bank of Raleigh have donated T-shirts, jeans, socks, tennis shoes and craft supplies. Carolina Packers of Smithfield, Capital-Coco-Cola Bottling Company, Dunkin Donuts, Oro Wheat Food Company, Pine State Dairies, and Wonder Bakery all of Raleigh are donating food that will make possible a picnic for the children.

Camp Renee provides a unique camping experience for children who would not otherwise have such an opportunity. It is made possible by co-operation among private industry, the military, and public and private agencies.

Sunday School Lesson

Background Scripture:
1 Kings 22:1-28; Acts 5:21b-29;
Romans 13:1-10;
Revelation 13:11-18.
Devotional Reading:
Philippians 3:12-21.

this more clearly illustrated than in Romans 13.

Paul is speaking of the Christian's relationship to his government and his ideas seem clear and concise:

"Let every person be subject to the governing authorities..."

"...those authorities that exist have been instituted by God."

"...he who resists the authorities resists what God has appointed..."

"...rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad..."

It would seem from these statements that the Christian ought never to oppose or resist the government in any way. Yet, if Christians had followed this concept rigidly, the whole course of Christian history would have been altered. There would have been fewer, if any, Christian martyrs. The church probably would never have expanded beyond the boundaries of Palestine. Nor would there have been a Reformation or the American Revolution!

Paul's words in Romans, however, must be kept in the context of his concern for Christian citizenship. Paul would not want his words about obedience to be construed to mean that the Christian ought never to resist or oppose his government. Paul's own actions are indicative of this. There were a number of times in his life when he was in opposition to the local government and was put in jail for various reasons. When conscience demanded, he resisted the government.

Nor was Paul alone in this. In Acts 5 we find the story of Peter and John being thrown in jail and resisting the orders of Jewish Council. Though respectful, Peter clearly draws the line between obedience to the state and faithfulness to one's God. When it is a conflict between the state and what God lays upon our hearts: "we must obey God rather than men."
