Long Docket Brings Session Into Evening

An extremely long docket kept district court in session until 8 P.M. Friday, with a large number of not guilty pleas.

James (Jimmie) Kelly gave notice of appeal Friday after Judge Joseph Dupree pronounced him guilty of assault with a deadly weapon. Kelly, 17, Rt. 2, Box 181 A, Raeford, was ordered to be committed to the custody of the commissioner of correction for treatment and supervision as a committed youthful offender for a term of not less than one day nor more than two years.

In other action against Kelly he pleaded not guilty to a charge of the attempted kidnapping of Deborah Carter of Lumber Bridge. Judge Dupree found probable cause to have the defendant bound over to superior court for action by the grand jury.

Willie Herbert Blue, Red Springs, pleaded guilty to assault with a deadly weapon and was sentenced to 18 months in jail. He was also found to be in violation of probation judgment and the heretofore suspended sentence of 18 months was ordered into immediate effect, both sentences to be served concurrently.

Charles Jackson, Pembroke, pleaded not guilty to charges of impeding traffic by standing on a main portion of the highway and of driving with license revoked. The court pronounced him guilty and sentenced him to two years, suspended for four years, and placed him on probation for two years. The defendant was ordered to surrender his limited driving privilege and not operate a motor vehicle until properly licensed to do so, and to follow guidance of probation officer in regard to alcoholic rehabilitation. He was fined $500 and costs.

Dennis Michael Anderson, Ft. Bragg, pleaded guilty to the unauthorized use of a motor vehicle belonging to Bonnie L. Jones of Travelers Rest, S.C. He also pleaded guilty to charges of driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor and driving without a license. He was sentenced to 12 months in jail, suspended for three years, and fined $250 and costs. He was ordered to violate no penal laws of the state for three years.

Dewey E. Suggs, Aberdeen, pleaded guilty to charges of assault brought by Darlean Suggs. He was sentenced to 12 months, suspended for three years, and fined $200 and costs. He was cautioned not to assault the prosecuting witness for a period of three years.

Edward Alexander Caddell, Fayetteville, pleaded guilty to possession of marijuana and was sentenced to six months, suspended for two years, and fined $150 and costs. The judge ordered him not to violate the narcotic control law for two years.

Gilbert Tillman, 513 Grant Ave., Raeford, pleaded guilty to assault on a female, Linda Tate. A prayer for judgment is continuing for three years with the court reserving right to pass final judgment within three years. He was ordered to pay costs.

Percy English, Rt. 2, Raeford, pleaded not guilty to discharging a firearm into an occupied motor vehicle. No probable cause was found.

Clarence Corbett, Lumber Bridge, pleaded not guilty to two charges of breaking and entering and to two charges of receiving stolen goods. The state presented no evidence and the finding was no probable cause on all charges.

Jimmy Elebey, Shannon, pleaded guilty to attempted grand larceny and was sentenced to be committed to the custody of the commissioner of corrections for treatment and supervision as a committed youth offender for not less than one day nor more than two years, suspended for 3½ years. Probation will also run 3½ years. He was fined $300 and cost.

David C. Odom, Rt. 1, Box 648, Raeford, pleaded guilty to a worthless check charge. He was sentenced to 30 days, suspended, and ordered to pay $60 restitution for use of Blanton's Grocery and court costs.

James D. McAllister, Lumber Bridge, pleaded guilty to worthless check charges brought by Short Stop on four different checks. He was sentenced to a total of 60 days in jail. The defendant gave notice of appeal in open court.

James Liles, Rt. 1, Box 538, Raeford, pleaded guilty to worthless check charges and was ordered to pay $21 restitution, a $2 warrant fee and court costs.

Robert A. Cole Jr., 405 N. Dickson St., Raeford, pleaded guilty to passing a worthless check in the amount of $15. He was ordered to pay restitution and costs.

Theodore Liles, Rt. 4, Raeford, was found not guilty of passing a worthless check.

William Jacobs, Shannon, pleaded guilty to fishing without a license and was taxed court costs and a $10 fine.

Ronald Brooks, Shannon, pleaded guilty to fishing without a license and was ordered to pay $10 and costs.

CITY YARD—The Junior Womens Club of Raeford picked the home of Mr. and Mrs. H.R. McLean, 106 Reaves St., as the best looking yard in the city for the week. The judging is part of a local beautification campaign.
