McNair - Readdy Pair Pledge Nuptial Vows

Mrs. Wilbert McNair

Miss Nina Ruth Readdy, daughter of Mrs. Nina Readdy of Raeford, and Wilbert McNair, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter James McNair of Raeford, were married Sunday, June 20, at 6:00 p.m., at Rockfish Grove Baptist Church. The Rev. Robert Douglas officiated.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Alice Greene, organist, and Ola McGregor, vocalist.

The bride wore a dress of white quiana jersey and Venise lace designed with lace-trimmed V-neckline, long cuffed bishop sleeves, and a chapel train. A lace and seed pearl Camelot cap held her chapel-length veil and she carried a bouquet of white carnations, daisies and baby's breath.

Attending her sister as maid of honor, Lorrie Ann Bratcher of Raeford wore a peach dress of tinasita knit fashioned with halter neckline, draped skirt, and short capelet jacket with crochet edging. Identically attired in apricot dresses, the bridesmaids were Corine Cook, Diane Readdy, Deborah McNeill, Gwen Adams, Willie Mae McNair, Anita Hurst and Joslyn Adkinson.

Christy McColl, cousin of the bride, and Ebony McNair, niece of the bridegroom, were flower girls. Dexter McColl, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

James McLeod was best man. Ushers were James Breeden, Fairley McNeill, Bruce Hurst, Larry Readdy, Rayvon McColl, Larry Fellows and Lynn McCormick.

A reception was given by the bride's parents at the church.

The bride is a graduate of Hoke County High School and received an associate degree in science from Mount Olive Junior College.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Hoke County High School, is attending Fayetteville Technical Institute. A member of the N.C. National Guard, he is employed by Knit-Away in Raeford.

The newlyweds will make their home in Aberdeen.

Miss Edwards Is Bride Of Frank Williamson

Mrs. Charles Franklin Williamson

Miss Jane Gayle Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Douglas Edwards of Eden, became the bride of Charles Franklin Williamson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Williamson of Raeford, in a 7:30 p.m. ceremony Saturday in the Central Church of Christ in Eden. The Rev. Harold Ray heard the double ring vows.

Wedding music was furnished by Miss Betsy Webb of Greensboro, organist, and B.H. Edwards, soloist.

Miss Jane Winn of Carrboro was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Reggie Hundley of Dunnville, Ky., cousin of the bride; Miss Linda Walker of Eden, and Miss Susan Britt of Asheboro, the bride's cousins; Mrs. Ben Edwards of Eden, sister-in-law of the bride; Mrs. Sharon Guthrie of Gibsonville, and Miss Kay Dunn of Bear Creek. They wore Mediterranean blue quiana dresses with floral chiffon capes and carried bouquets of multi-colored spring flowers.

Dana English of Raeford, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an empire gown of imported candlelight silk organza and Chantilly lace over taffeta, fashioned with sheer yoke, long fitted sleeves, and A-line skirt extending into a chapel train. Her fingertip mantilla of imported silk illusion was embroidered in clusters of seed pearls and sequins, and she carried a cascade bouquet of ivory orchids and roses.

The bridegroom's father served as best man, ushers were Ben Edwards of Eden, brother of the bride; Don Williamson of Raeford, brother of the bridegroom; Dr. Alan Cohen of Newport News, Va., Jim Puse of Kennett Square, Pa., and Ricky English of Raeford, brothers-in-law of the bridegroom; James Warner Jr., cousin of the bridegroom, and David Wood, both of Raeford.

After the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained with a reception at Meadow Greens Country Club at Eden. Later in the evening the bridal couple left for a wedding trip to Ocean Drive, S.C. They will be at home in Raeford.

On Friday evening, the bridegroom's parents were hosts for a post-rehearsal dinner at Meadow Greens Country Club.

The bride is a magna cum laude graduate of Elon College with a B.A. degree in biology. The bridegroom received a B.S. degree in physical education from Elon College.

Bridal Luncheon
