Blackburn - Sanders Wedding Held At Rockfish Sunday

Miss Deborah Ann Sanders, daughter of Mrs. Louise Sanders of Rockfish, and Steven Dale Blackburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Blackburn of Fayetteville, were married Sunday afternoon at 3:00 at Tabernacle Baptist Church in Rockfish. The Rev. Carl Strickland performed the double ring ceremony.

A program of wedding music was furnished by Miss Jane Barnes, organist, and Lester Southern, vocalist, who sang, "The Wedding Prayer", "The Wedding Song", and "Whither Thou Goest".

Two floor baskets filled with yellow and white mums and greenery, branched candelabra and palm trees formed a setting for the ceremony.

Two matrons of honor were sisters of the bride, Kathy Hendrix of Raeford and Wanda McCorquodale of Fayetteville. Bridesmaids were Gail Conoly of Raeford, Becky Plummer of Goldsboro, Nancy Carita of Fayetteville and Ann Ferrell of Greensboro. They wore two-piece yellow and orange floral organza dresses with boleros, and yellow picture hats trimmed with maline. They each carried a long stem yellow rose accented with greenery.

Children in the wedding were Lori Stewart and Douglas McCorquodale.

The bride was given in marriage by James Sanders, her brother. She wore a white gown of organza and Venise lace designed with empire bodice, lace-trimmed angel sleeves, and A-line skirt with lace trim on the chapel train. A lace-covered cap held her illusion veil, accented with matching lace. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow and white rosebuds, seed pearls, baby's breath and greenery centered with a yellow-throat white orchid, and floor-length yellow and white ribbon streamers.

The mother of the bride wore a floor-length, two piece baby blue ensemble. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a floor-length, two-piece pink outfit. Both mothers had orchid corsages.

Mr. Blackburn served as best man for his son. Ushers were Rodney Hodges, Harold Johnson, Kenny Blackburn and Dennis Bell, all of Fayetteville, and Doug Bass of Vander.

Mrs. Steven Dale Blackburn

Following the ceremony, the bride's mother entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall.

Mrs. Ethel Bass of Vander and Mrs. Lilly Capps of Raeford served cake, and Mrs. Jackie Snyder of Linden poured punch. Kathy Bruton presided at the register.

The bridegroom's parents were hosts for a cookout Saturday evening after the wedding rehearsal.

After a wedding trip to Myrtle Beach, the couple will reside in Boone where Mr. Blackburn is a senior at Appalachian State University. The bride is a graduate of Fayetteville Technical Institute.

Saturday at one o'clock, Mrs. Julian Barnes and her daughters, Marilyn and Jane, gave the bridesmaids luncheon at their home.

Pink daisies decorated the buffet table and centered the luncheon tables.

Miss Sanders was presented a wrist corsage of white carnations and gifts of silver in her chosen pattern.

Tracy and Kim Parker left Sunday to spend a week at Camp Indian Cove in Virginia.

Clarence Lytch and Miss Sara Lytch attended a reunion of the descendants of W.C. McNeill on Sunday at the Red Springs Presbyterian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dickson returned to Chapel Hill on Tuesday after spending the past week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dickson.

Mrs. Jesse C. Tew visited her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kotch, in Newport News, Va., last week.

McMillan-Moore Pair Speak Wedding Vows

Miss Gwendolyn Ann Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hughes Moore of Raleigh, and Joseph Fulford McMillan Jr. of Jacksonville, son of Mr. and Mrs. J.F. McMillan of Raeford, were married at 3:00 p.m. Saturday, June 19, at Westminster Presbyterian Church in Raleigh. The Rev. Curtis Harper officiated the double ring ceremony.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Mary Hanener of Raleigh, organist, and Tommy Rose of Raleigh, vocalist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white bridal gown of silk organza with Venise lace on English net bodice, Came-lot sleeves, and A-line skirt with attached chapel train, bordered with lace. A matching lace head-piece held her lace-edged fingertip veil, and she carried a bouquet of miniature white carnations, stephanotis and yellow sweetheart roses.

Bridal attendants were Mrs. Douglas R. Carver of Boone, and Catherine Elizabeth Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Smith of Wagram, and niece of the bridegroom.

Mr. McMillan was his son's best man. Ushers were John William McMillan, brother of the bridegroom, and Dale Teal, both of Raeford.

The bride, a graduate of N.C. State University where she was a member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority, has been employed as a teacher in the Sanford-Lee County Schools.

The bridegroom is a graduate of N.C. State University and is a district engineer with Carolina Power and Light Company in Jacksonville.

After a wedding trip to the coast, the newlyweds will reside in Jacksonville.

Following the ceremony, Raleigh Police Chief and Mrs. Robert E. Goodwin entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall.

On Friday evening the bridegroom's parents were hosts for a dinner at Howard Johnson's Restaurant honoring the wedding party, relatives and out of town guests.
