Tennis Tournament Proceeds To Benefit Cancer Crusade

The Hoke County Cancer Crusade will sponsor a tennis tournament the week of July 12-18. All individuals who enjoy tennis are urged to participate in the fight against cancer. All proceeds from this tournament will go to the North Carolina Cancer Crusade in the quest of conquering this dreaded disease.

Divisions of play will include mens singles, womens singles, mens doubles, mixed doubles, and boys and girls singles 18 years of age and under. This is to be a fun event for everyone as well as to determine Hoke County's best in the respective divisions.

Those interested in playing in the fight against cancer please complete the entry form below and mail to Dave Russell, 719 E. Donaldson Ave., Raeford. Entry fees will be $3 for singles and $6 for each doubles team. Make checks payable to Hoke County Cancer Crusade.

Rules of play will be mailed to you upon receipt of your entry form. Deadline for entry will be July 9.

Jaycees Still Unbeaten

By Pat Scott

Hoke Jaycees started the action off Tuesday defeating Rosa's Grill and McMillian Grocery 22-0, allowing only four hits. C. Dockery and C. Flowers led the hitting for R. Grill and McM. Groc. Leading the Jaycees charge was K. Little hitting 4-4 with a two run homer followed by a 3-3 performance by B. Hollingsworth and Top Sound Music showed little mercy to Rose's Aviation with a 31-5 victory. Fay Currie hit 2-3 for Rose's Avt. while W. Southerland and J. Bease had 5-6 each scoring 10 runs total.

In Thursday's action Hoke Jaycees rallied in the fourth inning to defeat Hollingsworth and Top Sound Music 13-7. T. Jackson was 3-3 with two runs for the Jaycees with help from K. Jordan's and B. Campbell's 3-4 efforts with a solo homer by B. Campbell. W. Southerland, J. Shaw, and S. Bounds, compiled five of HWF and TSM's nine hits.

Rosa's Grill and McMillian's Groc. avenged their loss to Rose's Avt. last week with a 14-4 victory after five innings of play. B. Odom was 2-2 for Rose's Avt. with Fay Currie's 2-3 efforts. S. Hasty was 3-3 for Rosa's Grill and McMillian's Groc. while D. Pleasant was 3-4 driving in the final score to end the game.

In Friday's makeup game there seemed to be no end to the scoring of the Jaycees as they rallied 52 runs to Rose's Avt. after four innings of play with an hour time limit. Leading the Jaycees was D. Little 6-7 with six runs. K. Little hit a three run homer and B. Campbell added a solo homer for the Jaycees victory. S. Baker was 1-1 for Rose's Avt., whose team was held to two hits.

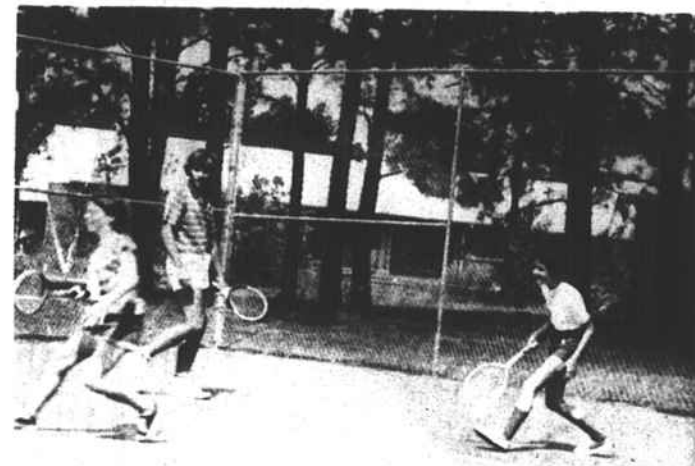

Hollingsworth & Top Sound rallied in the fifth inning with six runs to down Rose's Grill and McMillian's Groc. 8-5. Sallie Riggins was 2-3 for Rose's Grill & McMillian's Groc. Leading the hitting for HWT & TSM was J. Bratcher's 1-1 effort, with help from A. Hollingsworth and S. Bounds 1-2 efforts.

TENNIS—The tennis sessions sponsored by the Recreation Department can bring many disbelieving looks as well as many laughs. Here, instructor Henry Hostetler looks on as students Susan Davis and Carolyn Wilburn practice their form.

Girls' League Wreckers Upset

By Pat Scott

The Patriots defeated the Recreation Wreckers 9-8 Tuesday with a 4-4 performance by A. Taylor. Aiding Taylor's hits were C. McIntyre, W. McGregor and D. Massey's 2-3 at bat. The Rec. Wreckers were allowed only four hits.

Wednesday the Recreation Wreckers took out their revenge on the Hunt's Truckers, defeating Hunt's 14-6. S. Leach was 2-4 at bat scoring two runs for the Wreckers. Leading Hunt's Truckers were A. Bratcher, C. Sappenfield and C. Kershaw each 2-3 at bat.

In the second game the Patriots suffered a 5-6 decision to Hughes Texaco. It was a defensive battle to the end with good hitting performance by both teams. Leading the Patriots' hitting was A. McRae 2-2. E. Bridges was 2-3 for Hughes Texaco.

Hughes Texaco defeated Hunt's Truckers 10-5 in Thursday's only youth girl's game. R. McAllister led the Texaco team hitting 2-2 with assistance from D. Maynor, J.

Blackshear, and E. Bridges' 2-3 efforts. Cathy Sappenfield hit 2-2 for Hunt's Truckers while W. Kelley and C. Quick were 2-3 for the Truckers.

In Friday's makeup game the Patriots went eight innings to down Hughes Texaco 6-5. A. McRae hit in the winning run going 3-4 at bat. A. Taylor was 4-4 for the Patriots. B. Graham was 2-2 for Hughes Texaco with help from E. Bridges and V. Brown's 2-4 performance. It was an exciting game well played by both teams.
