McPhaul - Hoagland

Mr. and Mrs. John D. McPhaul of Memphis, Tennessee announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Brooks McPhaul, to George M. Hoagland, Jr. of Tupelo, Mississippi. The couple will exchange vows August 28 at Kingsway Christian Church in Memphis. The bride - elect attended the University of Mississippi where she was a member of Pi Beta Phi. She graduated at the University of Tennessee for the Health Sciences, receiving a B.S. Degree in Medical Technology. Mr. Hoagland graduated from the University of Mississippi where he was a member of Phi Delta Theta Fraternity. He is general Manager of Hoagland Chevrolet in Tupelo, Mississippi. The bride - elect is the granddaughter of Mrs. J.D. Tapp and the late Mr. Tapp of Raeford, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Angus D. McPhaul.

Lovette - Thompson

Aline Thompson and Dewey Thomas Lovette of Rt. 1, Shannon were married Sunday, July 4, at 1:00 p.m. in Dillon, S.C. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Vera Arnette of McColl, S.C. and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. G.M. Lovette of Rt. 1, Shannon and the late Mr. Lovette. The couple will make their home on Route 3, Raeford.

Scarboroughs Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scarborough, who will be moving in the future to Oxford, where Mr. Scarborough will be connected with Burlington Industries, were honored on Saturday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Larry Calloway entertained at their home on the Aberdeen Highway. Friends of the couple enjoyed an informal get-together with lots of conversation and refreshments, served from the dining table, which had been made pretty for the occasion.

McLaughlin - Stubbs Wedding At Shady Grove Saturday

Miss Dorothy Stubbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Teams Stubbs and William Henry McLaughlin, son of Mrs. Sim McLaughlin and the late Mr. McLaughlin, were married at 4:00 p.m., Saturday, July 3 at Shady Grove Baptist Church. Rev. J.W. Gorham and Rev. W.J. Hall officiated.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Alice Green who sang "The Lord's Prayer", "Whither Thou Goest" and "With This Ring I Thee Wed".

The altar was centered with a sunburst of white gladioli, mums and yellow carnations, and flanked by candelabra with burning white tapers.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Helen Matkins, cousin of the bride of Greensboro. She wore a Nile green dotted swiss gown with open V-neck and ruffled edge extending to an open V-back. The A-line skirt had a flounced edge and was trimmed with green satin ribbon. She carried a clutch bouquet of yellow carnations and dotted swiss streamers. Bridesmaids were Miss Shirley Stubbs, Mrs. Thelma Carpenter, Miss Edna Stubbs, Miss Theresa Stubbs and Miss Beverly Stubbs, all of Raeford, and Mrs. Virginia McNeill of Fayetteville, all sisters of the bride. Each carried a matching clutch bouquet of yellow carnations and wore maize dotted swiss gown designed like that of the matron of honor. Miss Tara D. Wilson, niece of the bride was flower girl. She was dressed similar to the other attendants and carried a white wicker basket with yellow rose petals.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white polyester organza gown with cotton venise lace, empire silhouette, lace applied bodice with a scoop neckline and matching choker. The full bishop sleeves were appliqued with lace and her A-line skirt was attached by a chapel length train. She carried a flowing cascade of yellow roses and miniature carnations with white bridal streamers.

The bride's mother wore a baby blue polyester knit gown. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a mint green chiffon gown. Both mothers had orchid corsages.

Johnnie McLaughlin served as best man. Ushers were Russell Dailey of Memphis, Tenn., Jerold Lawson and Walter Russell Owens of Washington, D.C., John D. McRae of Raeford, Royal Curry and Julius McLean of Brooklyn, N.Y. Ring bearer was Dwaine Stubbs.

Following the ceremony, guests were entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall catered by Caterers Inc. of Fayetteville. The cake was four tiered, laced with yellow string work atop of flowing fountain. Cake was served by Mrs. Marie Owens. Assisting with serving was Mrs. Loretta Barber.

The bride's parents entertained with a dinner following the rehearsal Friday evening in the church fellowship hall.

The bride has been employed as librarian by Maxton City Schools and the bridegroom is employed by Pickfort Knitting, Inc. of Brooklyn, N.Y. The couple will make their home in Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Norris spent several days last week in Hartsville, S.C. with relatives.
