Stonewall Report

By: Cindy Lynn Miller

Those of you who may notice that the Stonewall Report is written by Cindy Miller instead of Mrs. James O. is due to her being in the bed with a virus. She has been sick since Sunday so I'm doing it this week.

Mrs. Helen Locklear returned home Wednesday from Womack hospital. Mrs. Locklear was in the hospital due to ear surgery. She appreciated friends and neighbors remembering her in their prayers and inquiries.

Mr. and Mrs. Locklear are fairly new residents of the Stonewall area. They are the owners of the former Brewer home in Dundarrach. Mrs. Locklear mentioned how much the Stonewall Report meant in helping to acquaint her with our community. Her husband is soon to retire from the military and they plan to establish an Upholstery business in Dundarrach, and make this their permanent home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Fail of Statesboro Georgia spent the fourth of July weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Butler. While here they along with Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Butler visited Mrs. Lula Butler at Calvescent nursing center in Sanford Sunday.

Mrs. Connie Lewis and husband Doug were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Webb.

Mrs. Leta Yates of Fayetteville spent the weekend with Mrs. Lib Tolar.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Irion Jr. and children Wendy and John visited Mr. and Mrs. James O. Miller and children Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Jones and children from Norfolk Virginia visited Mrs. Willa Jones over the weekend.

Mrs. Hazel Davis, Mrs. Catherine McNeill and Mrs. Willa Jones visited Mr. John Allen Jones Sunday.

James O. Miller and sons, Michael, and Edward attended the dedication of the New Hoke County Library Sunday.

Mrs. O.B. Maxwell Sr. returned home recently from a visit with her daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Hal Gore and children in Chipley Florida. She brought Hal Jr. and Mahala home with her to visit until their parents come up later this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Buie and children from Raleigh were weekend guests of Mrs. Maxwell.

The last of the Stonewall Report for this week was written by my mother last Friday.

Remember several weeks ago when I mentioned my husband referring to me as Walter Cronkite? Well, my name has now been changed. The Cronkite has been deleted and the term "crazy" inserted. I acquired this unbelievable new nick-name, again from my husband, over a period of twenty-one hours between Wednesday and Thursday of last week. I still think "he's a dear," for allowing me the chance to earn this new title. It all started when I heard Elvis Presley was coming to Fayetteville. Thus after twenty-one hours of waiting day and night my daughter, Cindy, and I secured the tickets! So Good Golly Miss Molly we're going! What a mother won't go through for her children! The overnight virgil certainly made me aware that I was no longer the same teeny-bopper that twenty years ago almost fainted at the name of "Elvis." In fact while the youngsters sat around in shorts listening to their radios I sat with some other Moms wrapped up in blankets to our chins, teeth chattering and doing our best to stay awake. Twenty years do make a difference though. Come the seventeenth I will be thirty-three years old. This itself doesn't actually sound too bad. For as the old expression goes "you're only as old as you feel." This is bad! Because according to that rule I have to acknowledge thirty-two going on sixty. Never the less if I have recuperated sufficient come August the third, "Crazy" is going to join the young ones for her first opportunity to see Elvis in concert Live!

Raeform Man Pastor Of Mt. Airy Church

Union Hill Friends Meeting of Mt. Airy has called the Rev. Ronny Sessoms as pastor for the 1976 - 77 church year. He is the son of Mr and Mrs. M.K. Sessoms of Raeform. Sessoms and his wife, the former Elaine Guthrie, and their 20 month - old son, Michael Paul, moved into the parsonage in June. The Rev. Sessoms, a native of Raeform, has a B.R.E. degree from John Wesley College of Greensboro and is a senior at Guilford College where he is working toward a B.A. degree. For the past four years he has served as associate pastor and youth director of Glenwood Friends Meeting in Greensboro. The first service of the new church year was an "Old Fashioned Quaker Worship Service". Members of the Meeting were dressed in the style of the 17th century Friends and the worship was a strictly open service with members participating as led by the spirit. Lunch on the grounds and a fellowship and recreation period followed the service.
