Showers Fete Carol Fowler

Two bridal showers given recently were honors for bride-elect Carol Fowler.

Rachel Clark, Mae Heath, Margaret Terry, Effie Forbis, Carolyn and Ruth Heath, Pam Heath Christ, Virginia McCall, Betty Johnson, Libby Guy and Agnes Bundy were hostesses for a miscellaneous shower on July 10 at Tabernacle Baptist Church fellowship hall.

Miss Fowler, who is to be married to Stephen Durham on August 14, was presented a corsage of yellow and white daisies.

Yellow and blue daisies were used on the refreshment table which was spread with a yellow cloth. Punch, pound cake, nuts and mints were served.

Mrs. Julian Barnes and Mrs. Wayne Bundy entertained with a lingerie shower at the Barnes home last week.

Upon her arrival, Miss Fowler was presented with a corsage of pink rosebuds and gifts by the hostesses.

The dining room table, covered with a pink and white cloth, was centered with an arrangement of daisies, pink roses and white candles. The 15 guests were served bridal cake squares, nuts and punch.

Luncheon Honors

Peggy Swanson

Mrs. Larry Phillips, Miss Ivey Mallard and Mrs. Jimmy McPhaul entertained with a luncheon July 10 at the Phillips home honoring Miss Peggy Swanson, bride-elect of Charles Crowder.

Shasta daisies flanked by silver candlesticks with white candles centered the table.

Miss Swanson received a corsage of daisies and china in her selected pattern.

Local Debutantes

At Greenville Party

Jane Austin and Suzanne Jordan attended a party in Greenville, N.C., Saturday evening, given by the parents of other debs, Misses Helen Ruth Fleming, Catherine Garrett, Sally Sugg, and Peggy Watson of Greenville, Mary Winslow of Hamilton, and Beth Green and Kathy Wilson of Robersonville.

Prior to a street dance, debs and their escorts gathered for a pig pickin' in the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Van Calvin Fleming Jr.'s home. Colorful quilts provided seats for the picnic as everyone helped themselves to barbecue, chicken, baked beans, cole slaw and corn sticks.

Music for the dance was provided by Gene Barber and the Cavaliers.

Over 400 debs, dates and parents attended the statewide event.

Bridge

Mrs. Coley

Mrs. Walter Coley entertained members of her bridge club and one visitor, Mrs. Glenn Langdon, on Tuesday evening of last week. She served homemade peach ice cream and cake.

Prizes went to Mrs. Avery Connell for high score, to Mrs. David Scott Currie for bingo, and to Mrs. Martin Webb for consolation.

Mr. & Mrs. Senter

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Senter were hosts to the couples club at their home last week. Guests other than members were Mrs. William Lamont and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Upchurch.

A dessert course was served when guests arrived.

At the conclusion of the game prizes were awarded to Mrs. Charlie Morrison for the ladies' club high, Clyde Upchurch, men's high, and to Mr. and Mrs. Upchurch, visitor's high.
