Winston - McLauchlin Couple Married

Miss Sylvania McLauchlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernis McLauchlin of Raeford became the bride of Luther Winston, Jr., son of Mrs. Beulah Mae Cadlett of Raeford in a five o'clock ceremony, Sunday, July 25 at Silver Grove Missionary Baptist Church in Raeford with Rev. W.K. Mitchell officiating.

Wedding music was presented by Gloria McLauchlin, soloist and Dr. Willie McNeill, Jr., organist.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a Priscilla style gown of ivory satin organza overlaid with English net and lace with seed pearls. She wore a nylon net floor length veil edged with lace and carried a bouquet of blue carnations, babies' breath and greenery.

Miss Deborah McLauchlin of Raeford, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. She wore a pink gown with pink floral bodice and carried a long stem blue mum with pink streamers. The bridesmaids, Miss Margaret McLauchlin, Miss Jewel McLauchlin, Miss Shelia McLauchlin, Miss Joan McLauchlin, Miss Mageline Winston, Miss Paulie Faye Sturdivant, Miss Virginia Thomas and Miss Stella Worley, all of Raeford, wore gowns similar to that of the honor attendant and carried pink mums with blue streamers. Flower girl was Miss Queena Singletary of Raeford. Ring Bearer was Tracy McLauchlin and Train Bearers were Kenneth McLauchlin and Roconoie McLauchlin all of Raeford.

Jerry Tillman served as best man. Ushers were Andrew McLauchlin, Donnie Holmes, Naeotega Singletary, James McPhaul, Tony McLeod, Kinley McLean, and Gary McMillian, all of Raeford, and Tony Mitchell of Red Springs.

The bride's mother entertained at a reception following the ceremonies in the church fellowship hall.

The couple will reside in Raeford where they are both employed with Burlington Industries.
