Library News

Re-opens Dec. 27

The Library will be closed Thursday, Dec. 23 through Saturday, Dec. 25 for Christmas.

We wish all our friends and patrons a Very Merry Christmas!

On Friday, Dec. 31 and Saturday, Jan. 1 we will be closed for New Year's.

Things went pretty smoothly through the high school term paper period. Some of the material we had and some we did not have. We hope all our young patrons made real good grades, and are looking block grant for fiscal year 1976 with the funds to be used for three projects; construction of a neigh-borhood center in South Hoke, extension of water and sewer to North Raeford neighborhoods and rehabilitation of sub-standard homes in the North Raeford neighborhoods.

Altman said that some persons in the audience became confused about this year's grant and believed the meeting was to discuss how to spend these funds. The misunderstanding was cleared up.

The deadline for submitting the pre-application for 1977 funds is Jan. 7. Any projects which Jan. 7. Any projects which are approved by HUD must be completed within two years of funding. Altman said he expected the

Tuesday night meeting would narrow down the choices of possible projects and the NER planners and officials here would then reach a decision on what to apply for.

But for those who loved and lost

Your memory will always last.

A million times I have needed you A million times I have cried If love alone could have saved you You never would have died.

In life I loved you dearly In death I love you still In my heart you hold a place No one else can fill.

It broke my heart to loose you But you didn't go alone For part of me went with you The day God took your home.

forward to the last semester term paper with zest!

Our taxpayers might be interested in the fact that our heating system isn't costing nearly what some of the previously built county buildings did at first. We are real proud of this fact. proud of this fact.

Sometimes we gain and some-times we lose a staff member. Added and very welcome is Mar-verra McAllister. Marverra has fmished three years at North Carolina Central University in Durham and is working awhile before she resumes her studies in Human Development and Family Relations. She has meant much in helping us through our transition period.

Virginia White is also working with us. Virginia is married and has one son, 15 months old. She is busy helping with all phases of library work.

There is always lots to do in a library, and all of us are keeping pretty busy.

In other business Thursday, the board authorized the expenditure of $417 for installation of equipment that would keep the assembly room in the new county office building heated for evening meetings. Presently the entire building is on an automatic thermostat which cuts the heat off at 5 p.m.

Met Monday Commissioners met again Mon-day night this week and appointed the task force which will supervise the rehabilitation of sub-standard homes in the North Raeford area. Commissioner Neil McPhatter was appointed as the board's repre-sentative. Tim McCoy, Harold Gillis, Reba Holmes and Bill

Altman were also named.

The rehabilitation project is being funded through a $90,000 community development grant okayed earlier this year by the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

The board also authorized the tax listing supervisor to grant 30 day extensions of the Jan. 31 deadline for listing real and personal property.
