Courtesies Shown Miss Ray

Miss Dianne Ray, bride-elect, was honored on several occasions last week. Miss Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Gillis Ray of Route 4, Fayetteville, and William Robert Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Arthur Miller of Fayetteville, will be married March 6 at Galatia Presbyterian Church.

Miss Ray was honored with a surprise shower, given by Mrs. Raymond Parks and Mrs. Haskell Cowan, at Mrs. Cowan's home on Player Avenue.

The table was spread with a linen cloth, centered with a red and white Valentine arrangement, flanked with pink tapers.

Bridal squares, nuts, cheese biscuits, strawberry candy and punch were served to the guest.

On Friday February 18, from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. Miss Ray was honored with a floating miscellaneous shower at Galatia Presbyterian Church.

Hostesses were Mrs. Gordon Newton, Mrs. Malcolm Gillis, Jr., Mrs. Eugene Smathers, Mrs. David McInnis, Mrs. James L. Teague and Mrs. Alexander Lindsay.

The refreshment table was covered with a white linen cloth adorned with an arrangement of mixed spring flowers, flanked by silver candlesticks holding white tapers.

Bridal cake, nuts, and punch were served to the fifty-five guests.

Guests included Mrs. Marshall Gillis Ray, mother of the bride-elect, and Mrs. William Arthur Miller, mother of the prospective bridegroom.

Miss Ray was honored with a luncheon on Saturday, February 19, at the home of Mrs. John D. Gillis in the Galatia Community. Mrs. George D. Hall was co-hostess.

Upon arrival, the bride-elect was presented a corsage.

The bride's table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of yellow mums and jonquils. Small tables were centered with miniature vases of yellow jonquils. Places were laid for twelve guests.

A three course luncheon was served.

Miss Ray was presented a gift of china by the hostesses.

Miss Ray was entertained with a Tupperware Party on February 21 by Mrs. Douglas Gillis at her home on Route 4, Fayetteville.

After games were enjoyed the hostess served cake squares, nuts, sandwiches, cheese dip, and Cokes to the guests.

Miss Ray was presented with her choice of Tupperware gifts.

Miss McDougald, Mr. Kelly Wed In Fayetteville Saturday At Noon

Miss Judith Ann McDougald and Timothy Kenan Kelly, both of Wilmington, pledged their wedding vows in a double ring ceremony at noon Saturday at St. Patrick Catholic Church in Fayetteville. Monsignor Fredrick Koch officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. McDougald of Raeford, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Lillian M. Powell of Wilmington and the late S.D. Kelly.

Wedding music was presented by Thomas McFayden, organist.

Tall brass urns filled with white gladioli, snapdragons, snowdrift and chrysanthemums were used on the altar. White candles and ferns were placed in the chancel. Pews were marked with satin bows and eucalyptus.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white sheerganza over angelskin and floral Venice lace, featuring a high waisted bodice, scoop neckline adorned with beaded lace appliques, and long Bishop sleeves with ruffles at the wrist. The A-line skirt showed lace appliques in a pyramid effect extending into a chapel length in the back. Her bridal headpiece was designed as a floral halo holding an illusion floor length veil. She carried a bouquet of pink sweetheart roses, stephanotis and babies' breath.

The bride wore an heirloom pearl necklace which had belonged to her paternal grandmother.

Mrs. Mary P. Pridgen of Charlotte was matron of honor. She wore a two-piece ensemble of burgundy enterlock jersey with high waisted bodice, V-neckline and floor length flowing skirt. A short bolero was worn over the sleeveless dress. She wore a floral halo in her hair. The bridesmaids, Mary Mac Williamson of Fayetteville, Lisa Covington of Latta, South Carolina, cousins of the bride, and Elecia Brinkley of Raleigh wore identical dresses in style and color. They carried nosegays of roses, carnations and babies' breath.

Kevin DeLancey of Wilmington was best man. Ushers were Thomas H. Kelley of Granby, Conn., brother of the bridegroom, Frank Pane II of Hampstead, and Christopher J. Pridgen III of Charlotte.

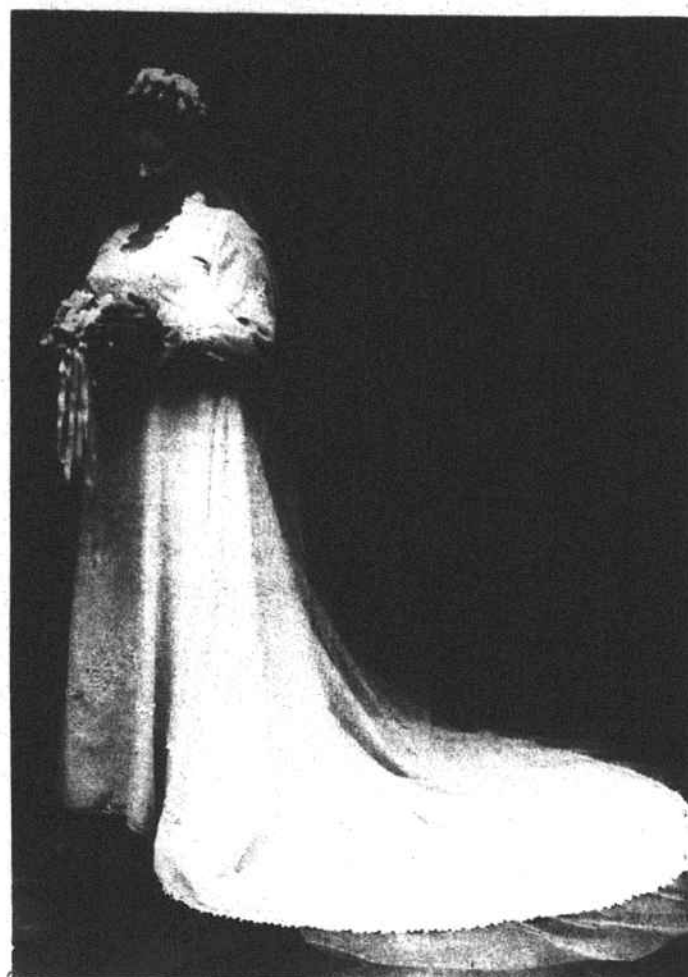

The mother of the bride wore a pink two-piece floor length ensemble and a white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a floor length blue dress and a white orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the Social Hall of the church. The bride's table was covered with an Army-Navy cloth and centered with silver candelabra holding pink tapers and epergnes filled with pink and white flowers. After the first slice of the three-tiered cake was cut by the bridal couple, it was served by Mrs. T.C. Covington of Latta, South Carolina, and Mrs. Robert L. Cox, aunts of the bride. Mrs. Ruth Scull of Fayetteville, aunt of the bride, poured punch.

Mrs. Martha M. Tiencken of Wilmington, aunt of the bridegroom, kept the guest register. Wade McDougald and Mrs. Dorothy Williamson, uncle and aunt of the bride, greeted guests, and goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Lindsay.

The newlyweds will reside at 319 South Front Street in Wilmington. The bride is a graduate of Hoke High School and the University of North Carolina at Wilmington. She is employed by Country Vogue in Wilmington. The bridegroom is a graduate of New Hanover High School and is a student at U.N.C.-Wilmington. He is employed by Aereonautics, Inc. in Wilmington.

and living rooms where places were laid for twelve.

A corsage of pink carnations was given the honoree upon arrival.

The bride-elect presented her attendants with gifts of pewter. She received gifts of china and silver in her chosen patterns from the hostesses.

Guests included Mrs. Howard A. McDougald, the bride's mother, and Mrs. Lillian Powell of Wilmington, the bridegroom-elect's mother.

PRE-REHEARSAL DINNER
The wedding party and out of town guests dined at the Grecian Gate Restaurant in Fayetteville on Friday at 6:00 p.m. Hosting the occasion were Mrs. Dorothy Williamson, Mrs. Ruth Scull, both of Fayetteville, and Wade McDougald of Raeford.

Miss McDougald received red roses, and Mr. Kelly, a rose boutonniere. Pink and white spring flowers decorated the table, which was laid for 25 guests.

POST-REHEARSAL PARTY
Miss Judith Ann McDougald and Timothy Kenan Kelly were honored Friday evening at a post-rehearsal party at the St. James Inn in Fayetteville, given by the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Lillian M. Powell of Wilmington.

Music for the evening was furnished by Ed Laughon, organist of Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Baker have returned to their home in Hornick, Iowa after a two week visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Black and children Mark and Misty spent Sunday in Ayden visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Morgan and Monte.
