Miller-Ray Couple Wed At Galatia Sunday

Miss Dianne Lee Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Gillis Ray of Fayetteville, and William Robert Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Arthur Miller, were married Sunday March 6, at 3:00 p.m., in the Galatia Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Russell B. Fleming officiating.

John William Gillis, organist, and Beth Auman, soloist, provided nuptial music.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore an empire - styled gown of white sheer ganza over angelskin and Venice lace. The skirt showed control fullness with three Bandeau of lace in a vertical fashion, and a high rising flounce extending into a Chapel train. Her bridal headwear was designed as a halo of matching lace holding a tiered veil of silk illusion worn in a Mademoiselle style. She carried a cascade bouquet of white miniature carnations, yellow sweetheart roses, and spring fern.

Mrs. Robin Propst of Charlotte was matron of honor. She wore a yellow floral gown with lace cap sleeves and carried a nosegay of orange sweetheart roses, peaches and cream carnations, and white snowdrift pompons.

Attired identically to the honor attendant were bridesmaids, Mrs. Ellen Gregory of Charlotte, Mrs. Callie Sugg of Greenville, Mrs. Donna Forsythe of Wilmington, Mrs. Carol Morris, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Judy Caudill, both of Fayetteville.

Honorary bridesmaids were Mrs. Cheryl Ray and Miss Lynn Lindsay of Fayetteville, Mrs. Kathy Hall and Miss Nancy White of Chapel Hill, Mrs. Janice Coburn and Miss Janet Siler of Wilmington, Mrs. Brenda McArthur of Chadbourn, and Miss Teresa Smith of Banner

Elk. They carried long stemmed white carnations with white streamers.

Mr. Miller served as his son's best man. Ushers were the brother of the bride, Marshall Ray, W.C. Strickland, Gil Lindsay, Tony Zaremski, all of Fayetteville, and Tommy Rachael of Pembroke.

The bride's parents entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall following the ceremony.

The couple will reside in Fayetteville.

The bride is a graduate of Seventy - First High School, Lees-McRae College, and the University of North Carolina at Wilmington. She is employed with the Cumberland County Board of Education. The bridegroom is a Seventy - First graduate, as well as Fayetteville Technical Institute and Pembroke State University. He is with the General Adjusters Bureau.

Luncheon

Miss Ray was honored with a bridal luncheon given by Mrs. Kenneth P. Ritter, aunt of the bride in Raeford at the home of Mrs. John Walker on March 5.

Upon arrival Miss Ray was presented a corsage of pink carnations. Places were laid for eighteen guests. The bride's table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink carnations. Smaller tables for the bridesmaids and honorary bridesmaids were covered with white linen and centered with pink carnations.

The honoree was presented a gift of silver in her chosen pattern.
