Public Reminded To Observe Rules At City Courts

City manager Robert Drumwright issued a reminder to the public that rules must be observed at the city-owned tennis courts in McLauchlin Park.

Tennis shoes must be worn at all times. No one is permitted inside the fenced playing area except players. When others are waiting to use the courts, limit play to one and one-half hours. No playing is allowed before 1 p.m. on Sundays.

Drumwright asks that the rules be observed so everyone can enjoy the courts.

Raeford Guard Armory Sets Wrestling Bouts Friday

The National Guard Armory on E. Central Ave. will host I.W.A. championship wrestling Friday, May 20 with matches getting underway at 8:30 p.m.

The wrestling is being sponsored by the N.C.O. Club as a fund raising project. Advance tickets are on sale at Raeford Hardware, Family Restaurant, Averitt's Grocery and at the Armory.

Headlining the card in the main event will be the battle for I.W.A. Tag Team Championship. Current title holders, Canadian star Johnny Powers and Italy's Nick DeCarlo, will be up against Dick the Bulldog Brower and the Cuban Assassin Number One. For the brass knuckles title, Don "The Fonz" Fargo meets the Black Star, "Pistol" Pez Whatley. Stonewall Jackson, Karl Von Stroheim, Rip Tyler and Preston Nicholson are also on the bill.

State Clubs Composer Award Goes To Local Musician

Melanie Childress has been named recipient of the North Carolina Federation of Music Clubs Young Composer Award for her composition "Little Tree".

Announcement of the award was made last week at the Federation's state convention in Raleigh. The competition was for ages 18 - 25.

The composition was completed under the guidance of Dr. Peter Klausmeyer of Chapel Hill, in accordance with Miss Childress' studies at Meredith College last fall.

The composer expressed her thanks to the 1977 Hoke County High School Chorale, under the direction of Mrs. Mary Archie McNeill, for making the work public at its Christmas concert last December. Miss Childress is a former pupil of Mrs. McNeill.

Miss Childress is a rising sophomore at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where she is a music composition major.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Childress of 319 W. Edinborough Ave.
